1890-1959 J. P. Wearing, 2014-10-30 Theatre in London has celebrated a rich and influential history and in 1976 the first volume of J P Wearing's reference series provided researchers with an indispensable resource of these productions In the decades since the original calendars were produced several research aids have become available notably various reference works and the digitization of important newspapers and relevant periodicals Spanning 1890 through the 1950s all seven volumes of The London Stage series have been revised corrected and expanded In addition approximately 20 percent of the material in particular information about adaptations and translations plot sources and comment information is new Although each volume contains indexes specific to that decade The London Stage 1890-1959 Accumulated Indexes combines all of the indexes into one comprehensive resource for more efficient research For example those wishing to locate all the references to a particular actor play or theatre whose history spanned more than one decade will find all of the entries listed in this set This set includes four key indexes general genre theatre and title The general index consists of numerous subject entries on such topics as acting audiences censorship costumes managers performers prompters staging and ticket prices With approximately 40 000 people listed this is the largest single source of theatrical personnel on the London stage during this period The genre index comprises all entries for production types including comedies dramas farces and tragedies as well as ballets operas adaptations foreign works pantomimes and translations The theatre index features every building to stage a production from the Adelphi to Wyndham's The title index cites 14 000 productions identifying every work produced on stage from Domestic Economy in January 1890 to When in Rome in December 1959 As a supplement to the individual volumes The London Stage 1890-1959 Accumulated Indexes will be of value to scholars theatrical personnel librarians writers journalists and historians The German Emigrant; Or, Love and Sourkrout Charles White, 1876 A New Look at Love Elaine

Hatfield, G. William Walster, 1985 This fascinating review of what social psychologists know about love sex and intimacy puts to rest some tired clichés on the subject Begins by asking What is this thing called love and finds that people distinguish between two kinds of love passionate love and companionate love This study answers a variety of questions about love such as Where is the best place to find someone to love Do men and women want different things from love How can couples make love last Originally published by Addison Wesley in 1978 it won the American Psychological Foundation National Media Award in 1979 Broadway Actors in Films, 1894-2015 Roy Liebman,2017-02-20 Many Broadway stars appeared in Hollywood cinema from its earliest days Some were 19th century stage idols who reprised famous roles on film as early as 1894 One was born as early as 1829 Another was cast in the performance during which Abraham Lincoln was assassinated One took her stage name from her native state Some modern day stars also began their careers on Broadway before appearing in films This book details the careers of 300 performers who went from stage to screen in all genres of film A few made only a single movie others hundreds Each entry includes highlights of the performer s career a list of stage appearances and a filmography Visions of Agapé Craig A. Boyd,2017-03-02 This book brings together philosophical and theological perspectives on agapistic love The aim of the text is to illuminate the nature of unlimited love by distinct and integrative approaches to the intersection of the divine and the human Various scientific approaches to human forms of love seem to shed light on our nature as social beings But to what extent are the natural desires for affection sexual love and friendship augmented revised perfected or replaced by the gift of grace In other words we can ask how is it that agap modifies or shapes the natural loves Diverse theological and moral traditions address the question in quite startling contrast Thomists follow the dictum that Grace does not destroy nature but perfects it Lutherans draw a sharp contrast between law and Gospel while Wesleyans see charity as the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit Some feminist theorists see the idea of self giving love as contrary to genuine self fulfilment while the neo Kantians see love as a duty to others and some Kierkegaardians see the command to love as an unusual manifestation of divine command ethics These diverse approaches in light of contemporary research in the natural and social sciences can provide fertile ground for the exploration of the intersection of human and divine love To date there is no text available that brings scholars from various theological and philosophical backgrounds together to engage in interdisciplinary dialogue on this important and much neglected aspect of research into the human and divine loves This book offers a significant attempt to remedy the situation International Motion Picture Almanac ,1939 A Classical Response to Relational Theism Brian J. Orr,2022-02-17 The classical doctrine of God expresses that the God of the Bible is triune a se simple immutable impassible eternal and the sovereign Lord over his creation which he created from himself Modern streams of theology within the evangelical circle continue to promote a doctrine of God that sharply contrasts the classical view the traditional view of God in Christian theism Therefore a critical response to such a theology is needed This study is a comprehensive analysis and sustained critique of Thomas Jay Oord s open relational doctrine of God Oord s model substitutes process metaphysics for classical metaphysics while attempting to retain foundational Christian doctrines that were established within a classical metaphysical framework Dating and Interpersonal Relationships Nicolae Sfetcu,2014-05-01 An introduction to interpersonal relationship methods advice and tips for friendship dating and online dating intimate relationship love and kiss flirting seduction romance
