Words as Events Venla Sykäri,2011-02-01 Words as Events introduces the tradition of short communicative rhyming couplets the mantin des as still sung and recited in a variety of performance situations on the island of Crete Recently these poems have also entered modern mass media and they are widely being exchanged as text messages by Cretans Focusing on the multi functionality of the short form Sykäri demonstrates how the traditional register gives voice to individual experiences in spontaneous utterances The local focus on communicative economy and artistry is further examined in a close analysis of the processes and ideals of composition By analyzing how the restrictions of form and performative conventions in fact generate impulses of creativity the author creates a theoretical approach that is sensitive to the special characteristics of the short rhymed poetic traditions In this interdisciplinary study the reader is invited to become familiar with the current folklore theory of oral poetry which has a long tradition in Finland The author combines the results of earlier folkloristic and anthropological insights and extends the theoretical concerns further to address questions of spontaneity and individual agency The research data has been produced in communicative interactions during long term fieldwork As a result the short rhymed poetry often neglected by scholars in earlier research paradigms can now be seen in new light specifically as dialogic poetry through its extended multi layered dialogic qualities Just for Boys Gr. 6-8 Reading Comprehension ,

Reader and Shakespeare's Young Man Sonnets Gerald Hammond, 1981-06-18      Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in Al-Andalus Shari Lowin, 2013-11-20 Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in al Andalus investigates a largely overlooked subset of Muslim and Jewish love poetry in medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur'anic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain      Unveiling Eve Tova Rosen, 2013-04-23 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Unveiling Eve is the first feminist inquiry into the Hebrew poetry and prose forms cultivated in Muslim and Christian Spain Italy and Provence in the eleventh through fourteenth centuries In the Jewish Middle Ages writing was an exclusively male competence and textual institutions such as the study of scripture mysticism philosophy and liturgy were men's sanctuaries from which women were banished These domains of male expertise alongside belles lettres on which Rosen's book focuses served as virtual laboratories for experimenting with concepts of femininity and masculinity hetero and homosexuality feminization and virilization transvestism and transsexuality Reviewing texts as varied as love lyric love stories marriage debates rhetorical contests and liturgical and moralistic pieces Tova Rosen considers the positions and positioning of female figures and female voices within Jewish male discourse The idolization and demonization of women present in these texts is read here against the background of scripture and rabbinic literature as well as the traditions of chivalry and misogyny in the hosting Islamic and Christian cultures Unveiling Eve unravels the literary evidence of a patriarchal tradition in which women are routinely rendered nonentities often positioned as abstractions without bodies or reified as bodies without subjectivities Without rigidly following any one school of feminist thinking Rosen creatively employs a variety of methodologies to describe and assess the texts presentation of male sexual politics and delineate how women and concepts of gender were manipulated fictionalized fantasized and poeticized Inaugurating a new era of critical thinking in Hebrew literature Unveiling Eve penetrates a field of medieval literary scholarship that has until now proven impervious to feminist
