of loss in her work all the while maintaining what the Vermont poet laureate nominations committee calls a sense of survival surpassing poverty and grief Her poetry's irrepressible humor and intellectual curiosity are unique among contemporary American poets What Love Comes To is the perfect entry point into Stone's world of serious laughter of uncertainty and insight of mystery and acceptance When I forget to weep I hear the peeping tree toads creeping up the bark Love lies asleep and dreams that everything is in its golden net and I am caught there too when I forget A recipient of the National Book Award and the National Book Critics Circle Award Ruth Stone has taught at numerous American universities The author of eleven books of poetry she has lived in Vermont since 1957
