

Las más bellas historias de amor de la Biblia constituye una obra literaria excepcional, porque ofrece a las Sagradas Escrituras desde una perspectiva que realza los valores humanos y describe los obstáculos que se deben sortear para alcanzar el más supremo de todos los sentimientos: el amor verdadero.

Diversas doctrinas religiosas consideran que la Biblia es un conjunto único de libros, escritos con inspiración divina, que representa sus creencias, dictamina sus prácticas y propone una visión acerca del hombre y la mujer, su vínculo y su moral. Entre las historias incluidas en las Sagradas Escrituras se destacan aquellas que están regidas por el amor representado en el principio de compañerismo en la pareja, el cariño paternal hacia los hijos, el sacrificio de una mujer para dar vida, la pasión por defender las propias creencias y la siempre presente devoción hacia Dios. Estos valores primordiales del ser humano se entrelazan con relatos de guerra, acontecimientos fatales y desencuentros entre hermanos, para poner a prueba las capacidades y los límites de cada personaje bíblico y permitir que se luzcan sus sentimientos más profundos.
