Mask For My Heart:

My Hearts' Songs Shontwel Wells, 2014-04-21 My Hearts Songs is a compilation of my views on life written through poetry Over the years I've had many different experiences and writing has always been my outlet my release Poetry gave me a sense of peace and serenity that I wasn't able to find elsewhere For many years I pondered over sharing my poems with others but after doing so I realized that it was quite possible my words were profound enough to help those around me To provide them with the understanding that everyone goes through something in life and sometimes if we are lucky we find someone who understands Through poetry I found that I could make life beautiful So within the pages of this book you will find poems about life and all it entails from my point of view

The Invisible Mask Catherine Hope, 2019-05-09 Are you tired of feeling invisible and alone There are few things worse than hiding behind an invisible mask with a fake smile feeling unnoticed unwanted and desperately hoping that someone would notice the real you Most of my life I struggled to fit in and to be accepted I felt invisible and that I didn't have a voice Through my journey of finding acceptance and purpose I wrote my prayers to God in the form of poems and wrote moments that I encountered a lesson learned or a struggle I needed an outlet so I wrote What I didn't expect was by doing so

I would find healing acceptance and love I came to know of a loving Father who showed me that I wasn't invisible but loved by Him and had a purpose God had a purpose for my tears and put it on my heart to share my journey with others You deserve to be noticed cared for and valued You are not alone but loved My prayer is with this book others can and will find comfort and hope as my struggles point them to a Loving God Savior and Friend Solariad Surazeus Astarius, 2017-10-15 Solariad of Surazeus Guidance of Solaria presents 114 920 lines of verse in 1 660 poems lyrics ballads sonnets dramatic monologues eulogies hymns and epigrams written by Surazeus 2006 to 2011 My Heart's at Home Jill Savage, 2007-02-15 Founder and Executive Director of Hearts at Home Jill Savage explores the important role home plays in a family's journey With her personable humorous style Jill shares from her experience as a mother of five and from conversations with many other moms to offer practical ideas and motivation to create a home that is a safe place for a functional family to blossom community center that offers hospitality and compassion church where prayer and Scripture guide all members museum filled with a family's history stories and heritage school with lessons of virtue integrity and ethics This anchor book for Hearts at Home will extend beyond this valuable ministry to encourage all women to build the heart of their home on biblical principles and to raise a family that is strong loving and firmly standing on a foundation of faith My Heart Julie Manning, 2017-02 What if you were told there's a possibility you would not be alive to see this afternoon or wake up tomorrow morning Do you think you would live differently My Heart is Julie Manning's story of facing potential heart failure each day and recognizing that each day may be her last changing normal expectations and self reliance to the surrendering of her dreams plans and deepest desires into the hands of our unchanging God The Time is Now Christa Boske, 2022-08-01 High school students teachers community members and leaders come together in this innovative book to share the profound influence of artmaking and justice oriented work Authors paint vibrant images of being empowered and engaging in social change Throughout their art based meaning making authors pose critical questions and unlock possibilities Their first tellings regarding the power of art provide readers with a lens to understand how they navigate injustices they endure and ways in which artmaking is a vehicle for transformation Their artmaking is a call for change Authors emphasize how artmaking bridges relationships and brings diverse community members together with purpose Together they engage in new understandings of self and other Authors identify how their arts based collaborations publicly showcase their justice oriented work but more importantly promote possibility and hope Youth explore how artmaking plays a vital role in promoting collective efficacy and engaging diverse communities in social transformation Artmaking mobilizes people And once activated these authors utilize their newly cultivated communities to foster justice oriented work throughout schools and communities Their justice oriented artmaking affords community members opportunities to respond in new ways by embracing community strengths and students lived experiences This authentic collaboration empowers the artmaker and community to promote justice oriented work and practices centered on diversity and inclusivity ENDORSEMENTS Reading

Christa Boske's The Time is Now is to find a profound sense of joy, wholeness and energy to push out the borders of consciousness too tightly bound to the hyper-rationalism of the workday world grounded in materialism and business transactions. The collected authors in Christa's book give form to the spirit world and its proclivity to allow the whole human being to embrace it, put it in it, explore it and find themselves in the journey. Artmaking is about self-discovery and emancipation. It's a must-read for anyone who wants to re-establish a belief in themselves and in humanity.

Fenwick W. English, Professor and Department Chair, Ball State University

Read this compelling new resource if you want to engage the next generation of youth activists in transforming our world. Truly, The Time is Now offers school leaders the most exciting creative avenues for generating justice we've seen in a long time. This book rises to the challenge of being real when so much is at stake.

Margaret Grogan, Professor of Educational Leadership Policy, Chapman University

The Time is Now is a profound title that encapsulates so much regarding what we need in today's world. Woven through the various narratives, we accept the invitation to hear the stories of artists and explorers in their respective communities. An authentic confrontation of the many tensions that exist in our quest to seek out equity in the areas of diversity, inclusivity and lived experiences. Voices that ring of radical change, the reconceptualization of freedom and the agentive stance we are called to take to realize a higher state of being and a more noble existence. The stories remind us that the dream of transformation is our most compelling force. This book gives us a map of all that is possible if we work together.

Lillian McEnery Benavente, Director and Professor, University of Houston

Christa Boske's edited book The Time is Now provides readers with a profound sense of what it means to live through injustice. The book, though, is not just a collection of heartbreaking stories but a chronicle of triumphs as the previously unheard are finally given a voice through artmaking. In chapter after deeply moving chapter, I was struck by the simultaneous vulnerability and bravery of the artists who shared their stories. What was clear was that artmaking was a form of awakening for the artmakers: awakening to social justice issues, awakening to their ability to connect to the community through art, and even awakening to their own value, which for so many had been wholly unrecognized prior to this experience. This book comes at a time of deep reflection on equity, diversity and inclusion in our nation, and the stories remind us that our children are absorbing these conversations. They are living these experiences, and their voices are an essential part of the dialogue.
