Woolner, 2023-11-24 At first listen music is conspicuously absent from Somaliland's public soundscapes The lingering effects of a war that devastated the artistic community and the increasing presence of Salafist groups which see music as incompatible with Islamic principles have muted musical practice Nonetheless as Christina Woolner undertook research in postwar peacebuilding in Somaliland's capital Hargeysa she continually heard snippets of songs Many of these she learned were about love In a time and region riddled with precarity hees jacayl permits singers to sing from the heart a mode of voicing songs that Woolner calls envocalization which allows the possibility of dareen wadaang feeling sharing Despite their intense intimacy that is hees jacayl transcend the connection between the lover and the beloved becoming also perhaps paradoxically an outward facing unifying force that powerfully draws together those suffering from love poets composers singers and listeners in both private and public spaces Taking us from 1950s recordings preserved on dusty cassettes to contemporary often improvisatory performances in a scandalous venue where the author herself eventually performs Woolner offers an understanding of love songs across time and space that opens new realms of possibility for relating to others and for local reconciliation which are otherwise closed off by overwhelming conditions of precarity

The Disappointment Artist Jonathan Lethem, 2007-12-18 In a volume he describes as a series of covert and not so covert autobiographical pieces Jonathan Lethem explores the nature of cultural obsession from western films and comic books to the music of Pink Floyd and the New York City subway Along the way he shows how each of these voyages out from himself has led him to the source of his beginnings as a writer The Disappointment Artist is a series of windows onto the collisions of art landscape and personal history that formed Lethem's richly imaginative searingly honest perspective on life A touching deeply perceptive portrait of a writer in the making

Listen with Father Caroline Sanderson, 2025-07-03 Listen with Father is a book about the transformative power of listening and about how we remember those we have loved and lost At four years old Caroline Sanderson fell in love with the music of Mozart after listening to it with her father At eight she fell even harder for the songs of David Bowie Her dad made many gentle attempts to persuade her to back to his world of classical music but it wasn't until after he died that she returned to it in memory of him Listen with Father tells of how she set out to listen with great care and attention to the music her dad loved to work out why he so appreciated it and whether she could too In a beguiling blend of memoir and biography Sanderson explores the music of composers from Igor Stravinsky to Clara Schumann and Frédéric Chopin hearing Mozart recitals in Salzburg visiting Sibelius's house near Helsinki and playing Robert Schumann at home on the piano Beautifully touching and absorbing Listen with Father is a story of a beloved father told through the classical music he cherished
