My Tupperware Party Was Over And I Sat Down And Cr:

My Tupperware Party Was Over and I Sat Down and Cried Elsie Block, 2004-10-20 In My Tupperware Party was Over and I Sat Down and Cried Mrs Block skillfully relives for you the Tupperware experience the party She shows the lighter almost hilarious moments experienced by guests and dealers alike She shows the reader how she crafted the meetings and parties to be an exhilarating experience for everyone involved It was truly an electrifying moment The reader will be fascinated by the author s unfolding the secrets behind why Tupperware became so popular As Phil Grosso past president of Tupperware U S A once said to her Elsie you re the only one who can tell the history of Tupperware Today with the home business market expanding rapidly Mrs Block explains the key points on how to be a successful salesperson in any chosen field or market that a dedicated entrepreneur enters The book is not all laughs The author also reflects on the downside of the ethical and moral problems that plague many businesses today The author s hope and prayer is that the reader will be far more prepared than she was in knowing what to do when a dire situation presents itself in their lives Hopefully by living the Blocks experience the reader will gain insight into the problems

Life of the Party Bob Kealing, 2016-07-12 The incredible story of Brownie Wise the Southern single mother and postwar Girlboss who built and lost a Tupperware home party empire Before Mary Kay Martha Stewart and Joy Mangano there was Brownie Wise the charismatic Tupperware executive who converted postwar optimism into a record breaking sales engine powered by American housewives In Life of the Party Bob Kealing offers the definitive portrait of Wise a plucky businesswoman who divorced her alcoholic husband started her own successful business and eventually caught the eye of Tupperware inventor Earl Tupper whose plastic containers were collecting dust on store shelves The Tupperware Party that Wise popularized a master class in the soft sell drove Tupperware s sales to soaring heights It also gave minimally educated and economically invisible postwar women including some African American women an acceptable outlet for making their own money for their families and for being rewarded for their efforts With the people skills of Dale Carnegie the looks of Doris Day and the magnetism of Eva Peron Wise was as popular among her many devoted followers as she was among the press and she become the first woman to appear on the cover of BusinessWeek in 1954 Then at the height of her success Wise s ascent ended as quickly as it began Earl Tupper fired her under mysterious circumstances wrote her out of Tupperware s success story and left her with a pittance He walked away with a fortune and she disappeared until now Originally published as Tupperware Unsealed by the University Press of Florida in 2008 and optioned by Sony Pictures with Sandra Bullock attached to star this revised and updated edition is perfectly timed to take advantage of renewed interest in this long overlooked American business icon

When Life Hands You Alzheimer's, Make Aprons! Gwen O'Leary, 2011-04-29 Alzheimer s is a disease that afflicts all gender race social and economic classes It incapacitates the brain of one family member while holding other family members hostage in a montage of caregiving responsibilities Many families are ripped apart as they struggle with the decisions of how to manage their loved one's care Our family was lucky The disease that fractured our mother brought our family together While watching my mother suffer from this hideous disease I discovered Alzheimer's offered strange gifts During amazing events in a journey that ended in death Alzheimer's became an unusual comrade I found myself in a love hate relationship with a disease that allowed me to love my mother before Alzheimer's took her away from me collection of short stories Super America was a New York Times Book Review Editor's Choice. Enter this exciting new novel, the best work yet from a writer whose astute observations of American life are as honest as they are engaging. Butter is a coming-of-age tale set against the backdrop of small-town Minnesota during the 1970s and told from the perspective of an eleven-year-old girl, Iris, who learns from her parents that she is adopted. The story of Iris's childhood is at first beguiling and innocent; hers is a world filled with bell bottoms and Barbie dolls, Shrinky Dinks, and Shaun Cassidy records. TV dinners and trips to grandma's. But as her parents' marriage starts to unravel, Iris grows more and more observant of disintegration all around her, and the simple cadences of her story quickly attain an unnerving tension as she wavers precariously between girlhood and adolescence. In the end, Iris's story represents a profound meditation on growing up estranged in small-town America, on being an outsider in a world increasingly averse to them. Passionate, lyrical, and disquieting, this intensely moving novel is a rich exploration of a crucial theme in American literature that will confirm Anne Panning's place as a major figure in the world of contemporary fiction.

International Handbook of Organizational Teamwork and Cooperative Working Michael A. West, Dean Tjosvold, Ken G. Smith, 2008-05-27. In today's fast-changing, hyper-competitive environment, teamwork and cooperative working enhance the organization's adaptive capability. The team, rather than the individual, is increasingly seen as the building block of organizations and a key source of competitive advantage. The International Handbook of Organizational Teamwork and Cooperative Working provides a clear focus on the psychological and social processes that can stimulate successful cooperation and teamwork. Michael West, Dean Tjosvold, and Ken Smith have brought together the world's leading authorities from a range of social science disciplines to provide a contemporary review of established and emerging perspectives. Throughout the book, processes that both facilitate and obstruct successful cooperation and teamwork are detailed alongside guidance on best practice and methodology. The challenging and alternative perspectives presented will inform future research and practice. The result is a systematic and comprehensive synthesis of knowledge from a range of disciplines that will prove invaluable to professionals, researchers, and students alike. A systematic and coherent framework which organizes and structures the knowledge in this field. An outstanding collection of authoritative, high-profile authors. Challenging alternative perspectives that will stimulate and enlighten future research and practice. Selective, updated bibliographies of key literatures support every chapter, a valuable resource for students, trainers, and practitioners.

Fact and Fiction Dennis J. Carroll, 2011-11-14. My non-fiction is primarily drawn from childhood memories of Yulan, New York, a hamlet in Sullivan County during the late 1950s and early 60s. They are anchored in a clarity dictated by subjects illustrating and implying specific points. I consider writing an important and responsible act, part skill, part art, but always an enjoyable activity as seen through the lens of time and memory. In reading fiction, I have always been most interested in character-driven as opposed to plot-driven stories. Consequently, my written fictive efforts generally reflect this preference. My characters are drawn both from my experience as well as from my imagination. Their conflicts characteristics as well as the way they speak act and see themselves stem from experience and imagination as well These characters are generally hybrids of more than one person either female or male often functioning in their everyday environments Some are soldiers lawyers police officers teachers photographers painters functioning within varied settings from urban to rural often reflecting a blue collar nuance and culture The plots of my stories function to support the stories that the characters tell the natural friction between daughters mothers fathers sons brothers sisters husbands and wives generally complicated by changes in their livessometimes major other times minor that cause them to confront those around them as well as themselves From philandering spouses to selfish incompetent or overindulgent parents or individuals who discover that their lives must change These plots linear as well as cyclical reflect the human drama of strength weakness doubt certainty moral choices and consequences love hate fear hope anxiety despair and happiness She stepped over the puddles and around the mud along the driveway to the mailbox by the rutted road out front Efforts like this along with things like thunder and lightning storms which terrified her as well as woodchucks and raccoons prowling around all night which kept her on edge reminded her that she was not a country person Still for the last few weeks the culmination of months of study their place in Manhattan hadn't worked She had needed the tranquility of this remote house in the Catskills where she had spent her summer tomboy childhood Franca walked slowly back to the house and retraced her footprints as she flipped through the handful of mail One return address New York State Certification and Licensing Unit caught her attention and she tore it open with her finger From Black Still Water She climbs the three steps in front of the local high school and remembers sitting on the wide stone slabs coffee in one hand a cigarette in the other waiting for her little girl to finish her dancing class on countless Saturday mornings but the memory quickly disintegrates when she opens the large steel door and it clangs shut after her The escaping music is deafening vibrations pound against her chest and in the sudden overpowering darkness she finds it hard to breathe Slowly her eyes adjust and she makes out the dancing figures through the white smoke generated from behind the jungle of gigantic speakers and amplifiers off in the distance She hugs the wall inches her way along searching and her breathing slowly returns to normal From Dancer Standing by the sink looking out over the lake Jaime listens to the sounds floating up from the basement work noises the hammer striking nails home one two three four occasionally punctuated by the high pitched whine of the power saw and the slap of discarded wood as it falls to the tile floor All day he works non stop framing it out refusing lunch a couple of hours ago and now it is almost three in the afternoon Tonight after working a four to twelve at the uti
