My World MICHAEL JEAN NYSTROM-SCHUT,2004-05-19 Let me tell you how much fun it is to be a book writer One of my friends recently said to me I dont even know anyone whos ever READ a book let alone WRITE one I was amused Well you know its really not so hard to write a book You just talk about what you feel and organize your thoughts along the way At some point as you stay determined to make it happen the book comes into the world For me now having compiled over 30 book length manuscripts of various topics and subject matter I have become more and more inclined to share the way I see the world with others along the way You might call what I like to write about as having to do with personal philosophy or individual world view Everyone has a way they see their world this book is part of how I see mine It seems that all kinds of people have something to say about what life is and is not I am like most people so am no exception I have come to enjoy giving such opinions and points of view with just about anyone who will listen I wrote this book MY WORLD The First 50 Years because I wanted to be sure and document the way life appeared to be to me at the half century mark in my personal growth and evolution I did it in a way that enables you to read right through it or if you prefer you can take it slowly over a one year span of time and think about the ideas and thoughts carefully How you read the book is entirely up to you Ten years earlier I had written a similar book Earth Dwelling An Owners Manual for Life in order to share thoughts about the meaning and purpose of life It is amazing the difference that ten years can make I like to think that I am growing Gee Could that be I sure hope so People from the worlds of philosophy religion and the popular culture are anxious to share the way they see the world with others I have a passion to do that also and so I wrote this book in order to summarize how things in life appeared to me I could be way off you decide for yourself At any rate my world is MY way of seeing life in YOUR world you will see it your special way and that is part of the beauty of this life Each person is free to see it differently and that is our basic right to do so I like that I actually feel so strongly about what I am saying here that I created a web site which is called HowIseetheworld.com to talk about and share ideas with others Take a look at it some time Thoughts are powerful and have a tendency to either make you great or even destroy you before your time So think good thoughts And enjoy the book as well

Entre Nous Grant Farred, 2019-06-28 In Entre Nous Grant Farred examines the careers of international football stars Lionel Messi and Luis Suarez along with his own experience playing for an amateur township team in apartheid South Africa to theorize the relationship between sports and the intertwined experiences of relation separation and belonging Drawing on Jean Luc Nancy's concept of relation and Heideggerian ontology Farred outlines how various relationships the significantly different relationships Messi has with his club team FC Barcelona and the Argentine national team Farred's shifting modes of relation as he moved between his South African team and his Princeton graduate student team and Suarez's deep bond with Uruguay's national team coach Oscar Tabarez demonstrate the ways the politics of relation both exist within and transcend sports. Farred demonstrates that approaching sports philosophically offers particularly insightful means of understanding the nature of being in the world thereby opening new paths for exploring how the self is constituted in its relation to the other.

Looking for Daylight Arthur H. Derosier, 2003-12 Can or will a university college president bring to the office an educational philosophy developed during turbulent times or must he start afresh in a demanding controversial position? Arthur DeRosier faced leadership choices during three college presidencies covering a quarter of a century. He brought to those presidencies a youth that spanned the Depression and World War II experiences gained through four years in the U.S. Air Force including the Korean Conflict, college education in Mississippi and South Carolina, and history professorships and administrative skills gained over 21 years, 1956-77, at six institutions of higher learning in four states. In Looking For Daylight, DeRosier explores the belief system he brought to the president's office, the problems encountered along a 25-year journey at three different colleges that required academic skills and patience to develop a graduate program at a regional university and then to play a leadership role in saving two fine private liberal arts colleges from extinction. In so doing, the author examines the role past experiences and an ever-evolving academic philosophy played in avoiding the death of two colleges while diversifying institutional beliefs and activities in the ever-changing and always challenging world of higher education.

Walk with the Devil Zakariah Ali, 2012-11 I was profoundly touched by evil at the dawn of my life and have been haunted by the experience throughout most of my life. My mother was poisoned before my eyes at about age four. I grew up on that fateful day and became aware of myself. I was touched by evil and the wickedness of man against man at the dawn of my life. She died an agonizing and horrible death. The room I shared with her smelled like rotten flesh or putrefied meat before her death. But the last time I saw her on earth, she looked radiant and was miraculously transformed when I saw her seated in the village square for public viewing. She was at peace; the lines and marks of pain and anguish etched on her face as she lay dying were smoothed out. Her countenance was peaceful, devoid of the expressions of agony and pains, the hallmark of the last three to four months of her life. She was beautiful in death than during the last months of her life. Death gave her peace. I did not know it, but I was affected or influenced by the events of my mother's last days on earth. I do not fear death and whenever I came close to death, I was more concerned about the inconvenience my death would have imposed on others than fear for my life. Death is not a bogey man. About a year after her death, I encountered malicious spirits in the bush. I did not know the spirits were not human, but I was apprehensive and fearful at the sight of little people under the fruit tree on which I sat. The spirits chased me from the bush to the village during the chase, the earth opened up and swallowed me for my protection. And not to be outdone, the spirits followed me into the bowels of the earth. That was the second time in my young life that I was touched by evil of a different kind I nearly died from the encounter with the malicious spirits I was reunited with a father I did not know I had before my mother's death But about three years after I was reunited with him he walked out on my new family my stepmother and her children Thus by age seven or eight I had gone through two broken homes First my mother walked out on my father when I was a baby and second my father walked out on my new mother and half siblings For most of my life I was haunted by forces of darkness malevolent spirits and scary nightmares from time to time Scary and haunting nightmares led me to discover the power of prayer very early in life I started praying before going to bed when I was in class three and the nightly nightmares ceased until I was a young adult and went to St John Bosco's College I discovered alcohol and began ignoring and skipping my nightly prayers or prayed haphazardly without heart and the nightmares came back I was hospitalized about five times in one year from the effects of a nightmare and vision when I was a student at the University of Science he did not foist his faith on the rest of the family My stepmother followed no particular faith or organized religion until the last days of her life She was animist she worshipped our ancestral spirits and deities I became a Catholic or Christian by virtue of education my father made no attempt to convert me to Islam The family while together was united by love not by faith each member followed his/her own faith I could not reconcile my new faith with my parents and realized that but for love we would not have known peace in our family We are divided by faith but united by love that was the experience from my upbringing My lack of blind faith is influenced by my upbringing Man as God and Satan I understand the meaning of some popular bible passages different from most because of my experience of the forces of darkness my struggle in life against evil witchcraft and malicious spirits I understand the true meaning of the passage in Luke 17:20-21 For indeed the kingdom of God is within you And the adm A Measure of Grace Akin L.
