Walking on Broken Glass Christa Allan,2010 Facing sobriety with Southern charm isn't as easy as it seems The Strategy of Desire Ernest Dichter,2017-07-12 Ernest Dichter is famous as one of the founding fathers of motivational research In applying the social sciences to a variety of problems Dichter emphasized new approaches to problem solving advertising politics and selling and issues of social significance such as urban renewal productivity and drug addiction As an author and corporate adviser he used psychoanalytic theory and depth interviewing to uncover unconsciously held attitudes and beliefs His goal was to help explain why people act the way they do and how positive behavioral change might be achieved In The Strategy of Desire Dichter both counters the argument that motivational research amounts to manipulation and shows how the understanding and modification of human behavior is necessary for progress Dichter's survey and analysis of behavior ranges widely He examines everyday matters of product choice as well as such broad civic issues as voter participation religious toleration and racial understanding He shows that in order to achieve socially constructive goals it is necessary to move beyond theological exhortation which takes an unrealistic view of human morality as well as beyond the limits of empirically oriented social science research which only deals in appearances Dichter sees human action as rooted in irrational and often unconscious motivation which can usually be uncovered if the correct approach is used In his consumer research he analyzes the nonutilitarian importance of objects in everyday life as well as how products and materials become bound with emotional resonance or acquire different meanings from different contexts or points of view Dichter shows that success depends on the satisfaction of desires and a movement beyond the ethic of work and saving Arguing that in an increasingly technological world progress and social harmony are materially based he advocates a morality of the good life in which prosperity and leisure lead to greater happiness Glint of Light on Broken Glass Jason Monaghan,2016-06-02 Jason Monaghan's historical novel Glint of Light on Broken Glass begins when sixteen year old George is called up for the island of Guernsey's militia just before the Great War Guernsey is poor backward and haunted by superstition and when George attempts to step up he is quickly rejected as lame However will anything change for him when out of the chipped corner of his glasses he sees a beautiful woman following him which makes him believe that she can tell him his future More than a story of the Great War Glint of Light on Broken Glass explores a new relationship that George cannot escape With the beautiful Edith by his side things could be perfect but she only has eyes for his tough ambitious brother Artie As the world beyond the island is engulfed in turmoil life for the three young people quickly becomes complicated George's obsession with both Edith and the mysterious woman who predicts the future threatens to tear the family apart Will tragedy or good fortune surface for his family Glint of Light on Broken Glass will appeal to those who enjoy historical romantic fiction with a twist of the mysterious This story is one of the very few that reflects the unique language and character of the island people with a true sense of place It weaves folklore and superstition giving the novel an edge of magical realism comments Jason A City of Broken Glass Rebecca Cantrell,2017-03-07 In 1938 after four years in hiding in Switzerland journalist Hannah Vogel believes the coast is clear and takes the opportunity for a holiday with her 13 year old son Anton Traveling again under the name of Adelheid Zinsli they arrive in Poland to cover the St Martin festival only to learn of the deportation of 12 000 Polish Jews from Germany Hannah drops everything to get the story on the refugees soon discovering that the wife of a friend of among them Running headlong into danger she agrees to help find the woman s missing daughter a promise which leads her straight into the arms of the SS as well as those of Lars Lang the lover she had presumed dead two years before Injured she and Anton are trapped in Berlin with Lars days before Kristallnacht the Night of Broken Glass where she is torn between ensuring their escape and keeping her promise But she can t turn her back on this one little girl even if it plunges her and her family into danger Praise for A City of Broken Glass In this fourth novel in a superbly written historical mystery series Rebecca Cantrell once again tells a fast paced story about the indomitable Hannah Vogel a journalist mother and fervent anti Nazi Berliner Set against the haunting backdrop of Kristallnacht the Night of Broken Glass the novel holds many surprises for Vogel who becomes trapped in Berlin with Anton and a former lover Cantrell drops you into 1930s Berlin and the fear and chaos swirl around you USA Today Cantrell s fourth historical featuring journalist Hannah Vogel after A Game of Lies is compulsively readable A palpable sense of dread builds as we know that Kristallnacht the Nazi pogrom of November 1938 is imminent This award winning series succeeds at weaving a very personal story into a well researched historical survey In an increasingly crowded genre period Cantrell s series stands tall Library Journal starred With compelling characters and a narrative which makes it hard to put down A City of Broken Glass combines romantic thriller with historical tragedy Historical Novel Society The opening of Cantrell s gripping fourth novel featuring journalist Hannah Vogel after 2011 s A Game of Lies finds Vogel and her 13 yearold son Anton in 1938 Poland Cantrell poignantly conveys the plight of Nazi Germany s Jews through the story of one child Publishers Weekly Brawny Bloke Shirley Bookman,2021-09-24 What if my daughter had lived Rachel would she have looked like Jay s daughters She died because of me Lord Jim Fausscyn Spare to the heir Unprovided for Must make his own way Naval career first Then His Majesty s foreign service Luckily he d won the pulchritudinous Rana whose huge endowment of South African investments would keep them afloat She d also the rectitude of six Caesar s wives Although the bloody mindedness of a child age nine Childish nightmares too hadn t she once mentioned Yes they d married she warning him beforehand that adultery wouldn t be tolerated She d meant it her first husband having been a notorious womanizer Her second husband should ve been faithful if not to find himself in punishing pain Now bloke in a choke hold brawny bloke down for the count His noble Pa threatened to disown him She herself threatened to leave him unless he shaped up pronto Career in ruins too Would he lose everything Lose his sons Chap on his knees Chap driven to prayer though he d not trusted to prayer since boyhood Family man pressing
