Please Help Me With This Family Maurizio Andolfi, Russell Haber, 2013-10-28 Please Help Me With This Family is based on the premise that it is generally useful to expand the therapeutic system when it is not working

By calling in additional resources when therapy reaches an impasse the therapist is giving two strong messages to stuck families 1 the admission of the failure of the present system to grow beyond the impasse and 2 a model of creativity in recruiting resources to improve chances of success Often the resources in the large system hold the keys to uncovering and correcting troublesome relationships and behaviors in the smaller system Please Help Me With This Family is divided into four major sections each illustrating unique approaches and methods for unlocking resources in family and therapeutic systems The first section opens with a comprehensive review of the theoretical roots of family therapy consultation followed by a discussion of the different faces of consultation around the world a detailed case study of an anorectic family in which Maurizio Andolfi successfully provokes a therapeutic impasse and to which Carl Whitaker provides fascinating insights into his role as a consultant Section II discusses the variety of consultative resources available in the client system and how best to harness them Chapters cover using the child as consultant using family of origin and friends as resources and the use of consultation in treating addictions Using colleagues as consultants is the focus of the third section Consultation has the advantage over cotherapy and supervision of requiring only a brief cost effective relationship Chapters discuss how therapists can avoid replicating errors by working closely with the client's previous therapist an eco systemic approach with chronic pain sufferers that involves medical family and community systems in Israel using consultation to evaluate therapy the creative preventive possibilities inherent in collegial consultation how a family therapist and school system personnel can be mutually helpful with a conjoint problem and a consultation that focuses on the position of the therapist rather than on the client system Finally Section IV addresses consultation as a valuable form of professional development It explores the importance of timing when using a consultant the effects on five therapists of live case demonstrations with Maurizio Andolfi as consultant and consultation to correct gender prejudice Contributors to this volume include Vincenzo F DiNicola Elizabeth Ridgely Joseph Simons David Keith Jim Guinan William Jones Lars Brok Joel Elizur Sara B Jutoran Noga Rubinstein Nabarro Bob Wendt Audrey Ellenwood Peter Liggett Marsha Purvis Mary Hotvedt and Marcella de Nichilo Students and clinicians who wish to practice consulting as well as family therapists who want to learn creative approaches to handling the dilemmas that arise in therapy will find Please Help Me With This Family to be an incomparable resource

THE PARENTAL ALIENATION SYNDROME Linda J. Gottlieb, 2012-04-01 In this thought provoking book Ms Gottlieb attempts to resolve the controversies surrounding Parental Alienation Syndrome PAS by providing substantial empirical evidence from her treatment cases in support of the eight symptoms which child psychiatrist Richard Gardner had identified as occurring in the PAS child and she further exemplifies the commonality of the alienating maneuvers among the alienating parents The author redefines the typically held characterization of the parents relationship as portrayed in the pertinent literature and accepted by most PAS aware professionals Numerous case examples are explored horrific tales of manufactured child abuse referrals to child protective services CPS resulting in suspension of visits between targeted parents and their children meritless reports to police alleging domestic violence in support of orders of protection which slander and stigmatize targeted parents exclusionary tactics preventing targeted parents involvement in their children s medical educational social lives and activities and depletion of targeted parents resources due to legal fees required to defend himself herself and to obtain judicial enforcement of parental rights Ms Gottlieb methodically documents that PAS is a form of emotional child abuse of the severest kind The author provides an unprecedented number of treatment summaries which demonstrate the effectiveness of structural family therapy in treating the PAS family To further elucidate the subject the author interviewed several matrimonial attorneys Law Guardians and forensic evaluators regarding their experiences with PAS and she incorporated their thoughts into her recommendations as to how the mental health and judicial communities should resolve this situation in the best interests of the child New Rules are suggested which encourage a collaborative rather than an adversarial approach to child custody This book will be an excellent resource for parents who are divorcing or are in conflict for adult child victims of PAS for mature children of divorcing parents for judges for Law Guardians for matrimonial attorneys for therapists for child protective personnel for law enforcement and for the professional rescuer who believes that a child must be saved from a parent International Family Systems Therapy Maurizio Andolfi, Peter Fraenkel, Antonello
