Philip Johnson
Franz Schulze, 1996-06-15 In this critically acclaimed biography Franz Schulze probes the private and professional life of one of the most famous architects and architectural critics of the twentieth century The only child of a wealthy Midwestern family Philip Johnson was a millionaire by the time he graduated from Harvard and in 1932 he helped stage the historic International Style exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art A patron of the arts and a political activists who flirted with the politics of Hitler Huey Long and Father Coughlin he went on to create controversial and historical structures such as the Glass House the Roofless Church the AT T Building the Crystal Cathedral and many more Johnson s personal charms paired with his manipulative ploys like his borrowing of designs shine through in this biography Drawing on Johnson s correspondence personal photographs and speeches and on interviews with his friends and contemporaries Schulze fills the biography with fascinating information on the architect s family travels friends and lovers and his many buildings and spaces themselves Franz Schulze is a professor of art at Lake Forest College He is the author of Fantastic Images Chicago Art since 1945 One Hundred Years of Chicago Architecture and Mies van der Rohe A Critical Biography Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world s most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 Makers of 20th-Century Modern Architecture Donald Leslie Johnson,Donald Langmead,2013-05-13 Makers of 20th Century Modern Architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture The book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including Wright Eisenman Mies van der Rohe and Kahn It describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples The profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects Each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library,1986 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals Avery Library,1985 Boston Architecture, 1975-1990 Naomi Miller,Keith N. Morgan,1990 Concert Halls and Opera Houses Leo Beranek,2012-12-06 The first question any lover of classical music usually asks an acoustician is Which are the best halls in the world The response the three halls rated highest by world praised conductors and music critics of the largest newspapers were built in 1870 1888 and 1900 always prompts the next query Why are those so good while many halls built after 1950 seem to be mediocre or failures You will find answers to these questions in this book the result of a half century s research into the very complex field of acoustics of halls for music Following the first chapters which establish a base for understanding the effects of acoustics on composers performers and listeners and guiding the reader to a common vocabulary the bulk of this book Chapter 3 contains the write ups photographs drawings and architectural details on 100 existing halls in 31 countries Thirty of the halls are completely new Although the remainder appeared in earlier books by the author the materials have been updated wherever necessary The later chapters present the relation of a hall s acoustics to its age shape type of seats and the materials used for the walls and ceiling The sequence of events that led to Boston Symphony Hall s excellent acoustics which opened in 1900 is covered in detail although it went through a troubled first few years because the leading local music critic considered the predecessor hall as better Detailed discussions also appear for balcony box stage and pit designs All the known electroacoustical measurements on 100 existing halls are examined and compared with the rank orders of 58 concert halls and 21 opera houses that were obtained from interviews and questionnaires Finally the optimal electro acoustical results are presented for concert halls and opera houses used for today s repertoires Three appendices supplement the chapters the first gives definitions of all of the major acoustical and architectural terms and symbols used in the book the second provides the electro acoustical data available on the 100 halls and the third presents in tabular form much of the dimensional and electro acoustical data for the 100 halls Minoru Yamasaki Dale Allen Gyure, 2017-01-01 Dale Allen Gyure traces the full career of midcentury American architect Minoru Yamasaki providing new insight into his unique style and his unfortunate fall from stardom in the later 20th century Disfiguring Mark C. Taylor, 1992 Disfiguring is constructive or perhaps more accurately reconstructive By exploring the religious dimensions of twentieth century painting and architecture he shows how the visual arts continue to serve as a rich resource for the theological imagination Built in Boston Douglass Shand-Tucci, 1999 Chronicles two hundred years in the history of Boston architecture from the works of Charles Bulfinch to Machado and Silvetti and includes more than three hundred photos drawings and maps Encyclopedia Americana: Jefferson to Latin , 2006 Architectural Record , 1986
