Another Jesus, a Different Spirit, a Different Gospel Steven H. Propp, 2011-12-13 It's the Christmas season the most wonderful time of the year for most people in River City California But for Jehovah's Witnesses Lawrence and Brad it's a time for them to try to explain the truth about this holiday season to the people of the community Their earnest efforts may earn them ridicule disagreement or a door slammed rudely in their faces but they persist and are sometimes able to find a mind and heart receptive to their urgent message about Jehovah's coming Kingdom Whereas for Elders Skousen and Marshall two Latter-day Saint Mormon missionaries the season is another opportunity to share their Church's distinctive interpretation of the Christian gospel but their efforts are often rebuffed as well In the course of their work these two pairs of men engage in dialogue with traditional Christians as well as members of the Church of Christ the Community of Christ RLDS Seventh-day Adventists and Oneness Pentecostals not to mention skeptics atheists and the increasing numbers of people who lack any particular religious beliefs But when a local church brings in a researcher to give a series of lectures on Cults and specifically targeting the Jehovah's Witnesses and Mormons a confrontation is ensured where theological and biblical concepts collide in a public forum Who if anyone really has the Truth Can one still discover the true meaning of Christmas in the midst of passionate disagreements over the validity of the holiday season Are objections raised about the secularization and rampant commercialism of the modern celebration valid Spend a holiday season or any other season with some interesting and intellectually stimulating characters as they explore these and other challenging questions Readers of the authors earlier novel A Multicultural Christmas will be pleased to see a brief reappearance of two characters from that book

Herein the gainsayers are taken seriously and given their voice They even find support in some of the contributors comments But apologists for greater use of arts and artists in the church have their say and things can get edgy Topics range from the biblically august the Second Commandment the regulative principle Great Commission priorities to the prudential expense bohemian influence weaker brothers to the programmatic Christmas festivities committee makeup Some of the parties to the discussion are church staffers pastors and ministers of music some are professors several are doctoral students one is a college student another a gallery owner yet another a denominational ethicist and there s a Canadian and a Korean in the mix The collection of speakers and opinions is illuminating and bracing and the fruit of their thinking makes for great reading and discussion
