The Roman Forts of the Saxon Shore, 1971 Roman Fortifications on the "Saxon Shore" Stephen Johnson, Great Britain. Department of the Environment, 1977 The Roman Forts of the Saxon Shore Stephen Johnson, 1979-01-01 The roman forts of the Saxon Shore Leonhard Cottrell, 19?? The Roman Forts of the Saxon Shore Leonard Cottrell, Great Britain. Ministry of Public Building and Works, 1964 Johnson, S., the Roman forts on the Saxon Shore Jürgen Oldenstein, 1976 The Saxon Shore Council for British Archaeology, 1977 British and Irish Archaeology, 1994 The Construction of the Saxon Shore Forts Andrew Pearson, 1999 Saxon Identities, AD 150-900 Robert Flierman, 2017-07-13 This study is the first up to date comprehensive analysis of Continental Saxon identity in antiquity and the early middle ages Building on recent scholarship on barbarian ethnicity this study emphasises not just the constructed and open ended nature of Saxon identity but also the crucial role played by texts as instruments and resources of identity formation This book traces this process of identity formation over the course of eight centuries from its earliest beginnings in Roman ethnography to its reinvention in the monasteries and bishoprics of ninth century Saxony Though the Saxons were mentioned as early as AD 150 they left no written evidence of their own before c 840 Thus for the first seven centuries we can only look at the Saxons through the eyes of their Roman enemies Merovingian neighbours and Carolingian conquerors Such external perspectives do not yield objective descriptions of a people but rather reflect an ongoing discourse on Saxon identity in which outside authors described who they imagined wanted or feared the Saxons to be dangerous pirates noble savages bestial pagans or faithful subjects Significantly these outside views deeply influenced how ninth century Saxons eventually came to think about themselves using Roman and Frankish texts to reinvent the Saxons as a noble and Christian people War and Warfare in Late Antiquity \(2 vols.\), 2013-08-19 This two volume publication explores the key factors determining the course and outcome of war in Late Antiquity Volume 8 1 includes a detailed review of strategic and tactical issues and eight comprehensive bibliographic essays which provide an overview of the literature In Volume 8 2 thematic papers examine strategy and intelligence fortifications and siege warfare weaponry and equipment literary sources and topography and civil war while papers focused on particular geographic regions home in on war and warfare in the West Roman Empire in the 4th and 5th centuries and the Balkans and the Eastern frontier in the 4th to 7th centuries AD Contributors are Susannah Belcher Neil Christie Ian Colvin John Conyard Jon Coulston Jim Crow Florin Curta Hugh Elton James Howard Johnston Jordi Galbany Jordi Gu rdia John Haldon Michel Kazanski Maria Kouroumali Michael Kulikowski Christopher Lillington Martin Marta Maragall Oriol Mercadal Jordi Nadal Oriol Olesti Alexander Sarantis Conor Whately Michael Whitby and John Wilkes The Roman World Bea Stimpson, 2002 Additional coverage of study areas ensures that this series can be used to teach the complete specifications for history at KS3 It is intended to raise student s interest in history and encourage the use of their critical historical skills The accompanying teacher resource material is designed to ease the pressure of lesson planning London in the Roman World Dominic Perring,2022 This original study draws on the results of latest archaeological discoveries to describe London s Roman origins It offers a wealth of new information from one of the world s richest and most intensively studied archaeological sites The Romans in Britain Brenda Williams,2004-04 Look out for more Pitkin Guides on the very best of British history heritage and travel specially other titles in the Pitkin History of Britain series Suitable for Key Stages 3 and 4 of the National Curriculum More titles in the History of Britain Series The Roman Occupation of Britain and its Legacy Rupert Jackson,2020-09-03 This book tells the fascinating story of Roman Britain beginning with the late pre Roman Iron Age and ending with the province s independence from Roman rule in AD 409 Incorporating for the first time the most recent archaeological discoveries from Hadrian s Wall London and other sites across the country and richly illustrated throughout with photographs and maps this reliable and up to date new account is essential reading for students non specialists and general readers alike Writing in a clear readable and lively style with a satirical eye to strange features of past times Rupert Jackson draws on current research and new findings to deepen our understanding of the role played by Britain in the Roman Empire deftly integrating the ancient texts with new archaeological material A key theme of the book is that Rome s annexation of Britain was an imprudent venture motivated more by political prestige than economic gain such that Britain became a trophy province unable to pay its own way However the impact that Rome and its provinces had on this distant island was nevertheless profound huge infrastructure projects transformed the countryside and means of travel capital and principal cities emerged and the Roman way of life was inseparably absorbed into local traditions Many of those transformations continue to resonate to this day as we encounter their traces in both physical remains and in civic life Barbarians and Romans Justine Davis Randers-Pehrson,2024-12-06 Barbarians and Romans 1983 examines the rise of the barbarian tribes and the consequent decline of the Roman Empire The author contends that the two sides were not bent on destroying each other and that after years of accommodation and alienation a new world would emerge that had its foundations not only in Rome but also in Germanic culture The book ranges across the Roman world and from the rulers to the ruled combining the study of monuments and artefacts with the literary evidence of the period The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity Oliver Nicholson,2018-04-19 The Oxford Dictionary of Late Antiquity is the first comprehensive reference book covering every aspect of history culture religion and life in Europe the Mediterranean and the Near East including the Persian Empire and Central Asia between the mid 3rd and the mid 8th centuries AD the era now generally known as Late Antiquity This period saw the re establishment of the Roman Empire its conversion to Christianity and its replacement in the West by Germanic kingdoms the continuing Roman Empire in the Eastern Mediterranean the Persian Sassanian Empire and the rise of Islam Consisting of over 1 5 million words in more than 5 000 A Z entries and written by more than 400 contributors it is the long awaited middle volume of a series bridging a significant period of history between those covered by the acclaimed Oxford

St Peter-On-The-Wall Johanna Dale, 2023-05-15 The Chapel of St Peter on the Wall built on the ruins of a Roman fort dates from the mid seventh century and is one of the oldest largely intact churches in England It stands in splendid isolation on the shoreline at the mouth of the Blackwater Estuary in Essex where the land meets and interpenetrates with the sea and the sky This book brings together contributors from across the arts humanities and social sciences to uncover the pre modern contexts and modern resonances of this medieval building and its landscape setting The impetus for this collection was the recently published designs for a new nuclear power station at Bradwell on Sea which if built would have a significant impact on the chapel and its landscape setting St Peter on the Wall highlights the multiple ways in which the chapel and landscape are historically and archaeologically significant while also drawing attention to the modern importance of Bradwell as a place of Christian worship of sanctuary and of cultural production In analysing the significance of the chapel and surrounding landscape over more than a thousand years this collection additionally contributes to wider debates about the relationship between space and place and particularly the interfaces between both medieval and modern cultures and also heritage and the natural environment
