Roman Elegies and Other Poems Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1996 A perfect introduction to the great German poet with a useful introduction by his superb translator Ecological Literature and the Critique of Anthropocentrism Bryan L. Moore, 2017-10-14 This book is an analysis of literary texts that question critique or subvert anthropocentrism the notion that the universe and everything in it exists for humans Bryan Moore examines ancient Greek and Roman texts medieval to twentieth century European texts eighteenth century French philosophy early to contemporary American texts and poetry and science fiction to demonstrate a historical basis for the questioning of anthropocentrism and contemplation of responsible environmental stewardship in the twenty first century and beyond Ecological Literature and the Critique of Anthropocentrism is essential reading for ecocritics and ecofeminists It will also be useful for researchers interested in the relationship between science and literature environmental philosophy and literature in general Goethe's Roman Elegies Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Sir Theodore Martin, 1905 Wisdom for the Soul Larry Chang, 2006 Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing Comparative Criticism: Volume 10, Comedy, Irony, Parody E. S. Shaffer, 1989-11-09 Volume 10 dedicated to Comedy Irony Parody celebrates the first decade of Comparative Criticism in a light hearted vein Michael Silk opens with a wide ranging essay asserting the primacy of comedy and declaring its independence of tragedy T L S Sprigge explores philosophers who dared to write on laughter Schopenhauer and Bergson Bernard Harrison looks at the twentieth century s favourite comic novel Tristram Shandy in the light of Locke s views on the particular Peter Brand pursues the theatrical arts of disguises masking and gender swapping through Renaissance Europe from Ariosto to Shakespeare Jane H M Taylor traces the danse macabre in modern black humour Christine Brooke Rose distinguished novelist and critic reads from and comments on her own witty fictions Michael Wood describes how Lolita outwitted her seducer Affective Connections Dorota Golanska, 2017-12-20 Inspired by the philosophical framework of Deleuze and Guattari in relation to affect Affective Connections disavows the dominant oppositional discourse around representation to offer an affirmative approach to perception cognition and experience It advances a new materialist concept of synaesthetic perception where synaesthesia is understood as a union of senses This idea offers a new figuration for thinking about our cognition exploring the role of embodied experience and the agency of matter in the production of knowledge Looking at a number of memorials memory sites and artworks relating to the Holocaust the book uses this idea of synaesthetic perception to explore trauma memory and the production of art in relation to painful memories In doing so it demonstrates that modes of interacting with the past and encountering the lived experience of trauma can trigger a deeper understanding of these events and produce more complex forms of affective connections It proposes a shift away from empathy towards sympathy understood in new materialist terms not just as a sentimental response to trauma but as an affective notion that allows for a more comprehensive grasp of experiences of discrimination exclusion suffering or pain On Multiple Selves David

Lester,2017-09-08 On Multiple Selves refutes the idea that a human being has a single unified self Instead David Lester argues the mind is made up of multiple selves and this is a normal psychological phenomenon Lester expands on his earlier work on the phenomenon illuminating how a multiple self theory of the mind is critically necessary to understanding human behavior Most of us are aware that we have multiple selves We adopt different facade selves depending on whom we are with Lester argues that contrary to the popular psychological term false self these presentations of self are all part of us not false they simply cover layers of identity He asserts that at any given moment in time one or another of our subselves is in control and determines how we think and act Lester covers situations that may encourage the development of multiple selves ranging from post traumatic stress resulting from combat to bilinguals who speak two or more languages fluently Lester s views of multiple selves will resonate with readers individual subjective experience On Multiple Selves is an essential read for psychologists philosophers and social scientists and will fascinate general readers as well Food and Multiculture
