The Demeter-Persephone Myth as Writing Ritual in the Lives of Literary Women Jana Rivers Norton, 2017-01-06 This volume explores the life stories of Elizabeth Bishop Virginia Woolf Alice James and Edith Wharton whose individuation process mirrored Demeter Persephone's mythic journey from abduction and rage to purposeful reconciliation These authors often courted humiliation and consequent exile by voicing what others did not want to acknowledge yet each took restorative action to discover and preserve emotional and mental wellbeing Writing during the 19th and early 20th centuries when an association between female authors and physical ailments neurasthenia hysteria and other nervous complaints by the medical patriarchy reflected how society in general understood mental illness as well as the narrative perceptions of women Bishop Woolf James and Wharton claimed personal autonomy by speaking truth about sorrow and suffering in their lives Despite restrictions and limiting gender norms each author continuously recast painful experiences of loss abuse and mental illness as fodder for the imagination to forge lasting literary careers The book emphasizes the therapeutic value of narrative disclosure and its ability to yield a deeper understanding of the impact of childhood trauma and adversity on women writers and how their creative response shaped modern culture As such it contextualizes trauma as lived experience for each writer along with current research on early loss and mourning childhood abuse and family systems theory in order to appreciate more fully how writing as ritual may help transform mental and emotional debility

The Ghost Stories of Edith Wharton Edith Wharton, 2009-11-24 One might not expect a woman of Edith Wharton's literary stature to be a believer of ghost stories much less be frightened by them but as she admits in her postscript to this spine tingling collection till I was twenty seven or eight I could not sleep in the room with a book containing a ghost story Once her fear was overcome however she took to writing tales of the supernatural for publication in the magazines of the day These eleven finely wrought pieces showcase her mastery of the traditional New England ghost story and her fascination with spirits hauntings and other supernatural phenomena Called flawlessly eerie by Ms magazine this collection includes Pomegranate Seed The Eyes All Souls The Looking Glass and The Triumph of Night
