Land Deep in Time Weronika Suchacka, Hartmut Lutz, 2023-10-09 This volume brings together a group of most highly acclaimed Canadian writers and distinguished international experts on Canadian literature to discuss what potential Janice Kulyk Keefer's concept of historiographic ethnofiction has for ethnic writing in Canada The collection builds upon Kulyk Keefer's idea but also moves beyond it by discussing such realms of the concept as its ethics and aesthetics multiple and multilayered sites generic intersections and diasporic contexts Thus focusing on Canadian historiographic ethnofiction Land Deep in Time is the first study to define and explore a type of writing which maintains a marked presence in Canadian literature but has not yet been recognized as a separately identifiable genre Parcours québécois Pierre Morel, 2007

Sanctioned Ignorance Paul Martin, 2013-11-15 There is no such thing as the ivory tower Rather there sit side by side numerous windowless towers of knowledge each seeming to have only a small entrance and no discernable exit Paul Martin Multilingual multicultural and vast Canada enjoys a rich diversity of literatures So why does Canadian Literature as it has been taught fail to encompass a common geography history and government yet reveal the diverse experiences of its immigrants long term residents and original peoples Martin's research interviews with 95 professors in 27 universities maps the institutional chasms in communication and the nature of their persistence His own example of venturing out from his tower to dialogue with colleagues shows a way toward cultivating a conception of the literatures of Canada that is expansive and inclusive Canadianists professors of English French Postcolonial and Comparative Literatures and leaders in education will profit from Martin's frank investigations

Writing Acadia Hans R. Runte, 2023-10-09 The phenomenal development of writing and literary creation among the francophone communities of eastern Canada has gone largely unnoticed and unprobed outside the fragmented land of Acadia Writing Acadia attempts for the first time to observe from a distance the invention of literature in oral Acadia and to interpret assess and order the manifold manifestations of the transition from epic story telling to writing as a means of nation building Having begun to write modern Acadia has truly re-written herself into existence an existence now threatened by postmodern unwriting of literature Destined not only for specialists but also and especially for readers with a general interest in literature including students of all levels Writing Acadia presents generous samples of Acadian poetry drama and prose with accompanying English translations Certain Difficulty of Being Anthony George Purdy,1990 A Certain Difficulty of Being provides an English speaking audience with an account of some of the most interesting narrative problems which mark the development of the Quebec novel Anthony Purdy uses the tools of contemporary narratology to go beyond the more formal studies of the sixties and seventies Why he asks are the narrators of the novels he studies telling the stories they tell and why do they experience such difficulty in doing so Voices of Exile in Contemporary Canadian Francophone Literature Elizabeth Dahab,2010-12-01 Over the last four decades the largest French speaking state in North America QuZbec has nested more than a dozen vibrant modes of French expression created by members of the varied cultural communities that have settled there Voices of Exile in Contemporary Canadian Francophone Literature examines the works of several first generation Canadian authors originating from Lebanon Iraq Egypt and the Maghreb who produced a trilingual literature that reflects the diversity of their cultural backgrounds By casting a critical eye on the works of Saad Elkhadem Naim Kattan Abla Farhoud Wajdi Mouawad and HZdi Bouraoui F Elizabeth Dahab explores themes styles and structures that characterize the oeuvre of those authors Dahab demonstrates that their mode is exile and in so doing she reveals the ways in which these writers seek to shape their art using a host of innovative techniques that engage their renewed cultural identity Women and Narrative Identity Mary Jean Matthews Green,2001 Women writers have made significant contributions to Quebec s ongoing process of cultural self definition Because the novel has traditionally played a central role in the construction of national identity Quebec literary history has seen the continued production of identity narratives which Jacques Godbout calls the national text Using the tools of contemporary feminist criticism and building on a tradition of work on Quebec women s writing Mary Jean Green considers issues of national and cultural self definition situating the literary texts of Quebec women within a unique political and historical context while also relating them to the work of women writing in other cultural situations from nineteenth century Europe to the postcolonial francophone world Canada & Its Americas Winfried Siemerling,Sarah Phillips Casteel,2010-01-15 The chapters in this volume a groundbreaking work in the burgeoning field of hemispheric American studies expand the horizons of Canadian and Qu b cois literatures suggest alternative approaches to models centred on the United States and analyze the risks and benefits of hemispheric approaches to Canada and Quebec Revealing the connections among a broad range of Canadian Qu b cois American Caribbean Latin American and diasporic literatures the contributors critique the neglect of Canadian works in Hemispheric studies and show how such writing can be successfully integrated into an emerging area of literary inquiry An important development in understanding the diversity of literatures throughout the western hemisphere Canada and Its Americas reveals exciting new ways for thinking about transnationalism regionalism border cultures and the literatures they produce      North American Encounters Dieter Meindl, 2002 These essays in English except for four items in German and French provide an intercultural perspective They deal with such diverse aspects of North American including Quebecois literature The continental context also pervades treatments of novels featuring Indian wars sentimentalism the West and modern p caros story cycles e g Atwood s and the long poem Kroetsch

The French Atlantic Bill Marshall, 2009-01-01 The French Atlantic is a compelling and timely contribution to ongoing debates about nationhood culture and Frenchness that have come to define France and its diaspora in light of the diplomatic fracas surrounding the Iraq war and other mass cultural events With interdisciplinary navigation of fields nearly as diverse as the locations he explores Bill Marshall considers the cultural history of seven different French Atlantic spaces from Quebec to the southern Caribbean to North Atlantic territory and back to metropolitan France in this groundbreaking study of the Atlantic world      French-Canadian & Québécois Novels Ben-Zion Shek, 1991 French Canadian novels began as a marginal offshoot of French metropolitan writing and are now read and studied not only in English Canada but around the world This collection of essays offers a history and analysis of French Canadian fiction from the 1830s to the present day Besides discussing a variety of works and writers most available in English translation the book explores the rapid development of new women s writing in the last twenty years treats the art of translation and presents a bibliography of criticism and anthologies
