Author's libr. ed Marie Corelli,1896 A Romance of Two Worlds , by Marie Corelli ( First Novel ) Marie Corelli,2016-06-25 A Romance of Two Worlds starts with a young heroine in first person telling her story of a debilitating illness that includes depression and thoughts of suicide Her doctor is unable to help her and sends her off on a holiday where she meets a mystical character by the name of Raffello Cellini a famous Italian artist Cellini offers her a strange potion which immediately puts her into a tranquil slumber in which she experiences divine visions Upon waking she craves more Later she meets her unnamed guardian angel who whisks her through infinite solar systems faster than a shooting star while human spirits fly by like gossamer silk He shares the truth of religion and the secret of human destiny but still she longs for more She comes to understand God as pure light and pure love but it s not enough that she should see and hear these things from the touch of an angel She wants to master this ability on her own and seeks a oneness with God through a series of meditative disciplines while locked away in a monastery Reception The novel was rejected for publication by Hall Caine an act that began a lifelong feud between Caine and Corelli After hearing of Caine s harsh criticism George Bentley suspected that the novel might have commercial appeal and published Corelli s first novel Marie Corelli did not expect A Romance of Two Worlds to be so well received. She claims in the introduction to the second printing in 1887 that it was not only read but loved. Her scripture The Electric Principle of Christianity included in the novel is presented as something factual and after the publication of the book generated a cult following in which readers sought more information about her experience. Today New Age devotees hail Corelli as inspired. Many believe that the book is autobiographical something Corelli encouraged during her lifetime. In several chapters Corelli hints that Heliobas may be the Count of St Germain although Rosicrucian authors identify him as an Illuminati hierophant Count A di Guinotti. Heliobas appears in two other Corelli novels Ardath and The Soul of Lilith. Themes in A Romance of Two Worlds. Marie Corelli takes on an old argument between the creationists and the evolutionists. However her insights are futuristic including ideas about electricity, solar power and the properties of the atom. She explains in the introduction in this cultivated age a wall of skepticism and cynicism is gradually being built up by intellectual thinkers of every nation against all the treats of the Supernatural and Unseen. I am aware that my narration of the events I have recently experienced will be read with incredulity. At a time when the great empire of the Christian Religion is being assailed or politely ignored by governments and public speakers and teachers I realize to the fullest extent how daring is any attempt to prove even by a plain history of strange occurrences happening to one's self the actual existence of the Supernatural around us and the absolute certainty of a future state of being after the passage through that brief soul-topos in which the body perishes known to us as Death. The book is suffused with Pantheism. She also argues that Christ did not come to us as a sacrifice because God is a creator of love and beauty and could not desire a bleeding victim as sacrifice to appease His Anger. A romance of two worlds Marie Corelli, 1889. A Romance of Two Worlds Illustrated Marie Corelli, 2020-11-10. A Romance of Two Worlds was Marie Corelli's first novel published in 1886.
