The Romance of Tristan and Iseult Joseph Bédier, 2019-11-19 Joseph Bédier's The Romance of Tristan and Iseult serves as a masterful retelling of the enduring medieval legend that captures the complexities of love, loyalty, and tragedy. Bédier's literary style showcases his adeptness at weaving lyrical prose with rich imagery, effectively resurrecting the spirit of the medieval chivalric tradition while employing modern sensibilities. This rendition is notable for its emphasis on emotional depth and psychological nuance, exploring the tumultuous relationship between the star-crossed lovers amidst a backdrop of betrayal and destiny. Bédier meticulously sifts through various sources, selecting and amalgamating elements that highlight the pivotal themes of love's duality and the hero's internal struggle, thereby situating the text within the continuum of European romantic literature. Joseph Bédier (1864-1938), a French philologist and literary scholar, was deeply influenced by his fascination with medieval literature and folklore. His scholarly background informed his approach to this work, as he sought to distill the essence of the legend of Tristan and Iseult, drawing on earlier texts while infusing it with contemporary relevance. Bédier's commitment to the art of storytelling and his understanding of the cultural contexts of his subjects allowed him to create a work that transcends its time, presenting a timeless reflection on love's perils. For readers enamored by tales of passionate love steeped in myth and tragedy, Bédier's The Romance of Tristan and Iseult is an indispensable addition to the canon of romantic literature. Its lyrical prose invites reflection on the nature of love and sacrifice while offering insights into the human condition. This retelling not only entertains but also enriches the reader's understanding of its historical and cultural significance, making it a vital read for literary enthusiasts and scholars alike. Lacan on Love Bruce

Fink, 2017-09-05 Quintessentially fascinating love intrigues and perplexes us and drives much of what we do in life. As wary as we may be of its illusions and disappointments, many of us fall blindly into its traps and become ensnared time and again. Deliriously mad excitement turns to disenchantment if not deadening repetition, and we wonder how we shall ever break out of this vicious cycle. Can psychoanalysis, with ample assistance from philosophers, poets, novelists, and songwriters, give us a new perspective on the wellsprings and course of love? Can it help us fathom how and why we are often looking for love in all the wrong places and are fundamentally confused about what love really is? In this lively and wide-ranging exploration of love throughout the ages, Fink argues that it can. Taking within his compass a vast array of traditions from Antiquity to the courtly love poets, Christian love, and Romanticism, and providing an in-depth examination of Freud and Lacan on love and libido, Fink unpacks Lacan's paradoxical claim that love is giving what you don't have. He shows how the emptiness or lack we feel within ourselves gets covered over or entwined in love, and how it is possible and indeed vital to give something to another that we feel we ourselves don't have. This first-ever commentary on Lacan's Seminar VIII, Transference, provides readers with a clear and systematic introduction to Lacan's views on love. It will be of great value to students and scholars of psychology and of the humanities generally, and to analysts of all persuasions. The Romance of Tristan & Iseult Bérroul, 1960 Heritage
