Longhi honored him as the most energetic and passionate of Caravaggio's naturalist followers. In Rome, Valentin, who loved the tavern as much as the painter's palette, fell in with a rowdy confederation of artists but eventually received commissions from some of the city's most prominent patrons. It was in this artistically rich but violent metropolis that Valentin created such masterworks as a major altarpiece in Saint Peter's Basilica and superb renderings of biblical and secular subjects until his tragic death at the age of forty-one cut short his ascendant career. With discussions of nearly fifty works representing practically all of his painted oeuvre, Valentin de Boulogne: Beyond Caravaggio explores both the artist's superlative depictions of daily life and the tumultuous context in which they were produced. Essays by a team of international scholars consider his key attributions to European painting, his devotion to everyday objects and models from life, his technique of staging pictures with the immediacy of unfolding drama, and his place in the pantheon of French artists. An extensive chronology surveys the rare extant documents that chronicle his biography, while individual entries help situate his works in the contexts of his times. Rich with incident and insight and beautifully illustrated in Valentin's complex, suggestive paintings, Valentin de Boulogne: Beyond Caravaggio reveals a seminal artist, a practitioner of realism in the seventeenth century who prefigured the naturalistic modernism of Gustave Courbet and Edouard Manet two centuries later.

Victoria University (Toronto, Ont.). Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies, 2003. The Renaissance in the Nineteenth Century. The nineteenth century witnessed rapid economic and social developments, profound political and intellectual upheaval, and startling innovations in art and literature. As Europeans peered into an uncertain future, they drew upon the Renaissance for meaning, precedents, and identity. Many claimed to find inspiration or models in the Renaissance, but as we move across the continent's borders and through the century's decades, we find that the Renaissance was many different things to many different people. This collection brings together the work of sixteen authors who examine the many Renaissances conceived by European novelists and poets, artists and composers, architects and city planners, political theorists and politicians, businessmen and advertisers. The essays fall into three groups: Aesthetic Recoveries of Strategic Pasts; The Renaissance in Nineteenth-Century Culture Wars; and Material Culture and Manufactured Memories.

Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome Jill Burke, 2017-07-05. From the late fifteenth to the late seventeenth century, Rome was one of the most vibrant and productive centres for the visual arts in the West. Artists from all over Europe came to the city to see its classical remains and its celebrated contemporary art works, as well as for the opportunity to work for its many wealthy patrons. They contributed to the eclecticism of the Roman artistic scene and to the diffusion of Roman artistic styles in Europe and beyond. Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome is the first book-length study to consider identity creation and artistic development in Rome during this period. Drawing together an international cast of key scholars in the field of Renaissance studies, the book adroitly demonstrates how the exceptional quality of Roman court and urban culture, with its elected monarchy, its large foreign population, and its unique sense of civic identity, interacted with developments in the visual arts. With its distinctive chronological span and uniquely interdisciplinary approach Art and Identity in Early Modern Rome puts forward an alternative history of the visual arts in early modern Rome one that questions traditional periodisation and stylistic categorisation Hafsids and Habsburgs in the Early Modern Mediterranean Cristelle L. Baskins, 2022-11-24 This book explores an anonymous sixteenth century portrait of Muley al Hassan the Hafsid king of Tunis ca 1528 1550 that bears witness to relations between North Africa the Habsburgs and the Ottomans While Muley al Hassan appears frequently in the vast literature on Charles V Habsburg he is overshadowed by the emperor Here he emerges as a protagonist a figure whose shifting reputation can be traced well into the seventeenth century Images of the King of Tunis circulated in broadsheets ephemeral images made for triumphal entries manuscripts tapestry designs engravings and books The ceaseless production of Tunisian imagery allowed Europeans to face their North African counterparts through scenes of battle but also through imaginary encounters and festive cross dressing This book shows how portraits of Hafsid rulers challenge assumptions about the absolute divide between Christian and Muslim sovereign and subject the familiar and the foreign and they put a face on the entangled histories of the early modern Mediterranean

Painting as a Way of Life Richard Neer, 2025-03-19 Neer uncovers a key moment in the history of early modern art when painting was understood to be a tool for self transformation and for living a philosophical life In this wide ranging study Richard Neer shows how French painters of the seventeenth century developed radically new ways to connect art perception and ethics Cutting across traditional boundaries of classicism and realism Neer addresses four case studies Nicolas Poussin renowned for marrying ancient philosophy and narrative painting Louise Moillon who pioneered French still life in the 1630s Georges de La Tour a painter of intense and introspective nocturnes and the Brothers Le Nain specialists in genre and portraiture who inspired Courbet Manet and other painters of modern life Setting these artists in dialogue with Montaigne Descartes Pascal and others ranging from the studios of Rome to the streets of Paris this book provides fresh accounts of essential artworks some well known others neglected and new ways to approach the relation of art theory and daily life

Theology, Politics and Letters at the Crossroads of European Civilization G. Cerny, 2012-12-06 The Character of Seventeenth Century French Protestantism and the Place of the Huguenot Refuge following the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes Thirty seven years ago the late Emile G Leonard regretted that there were so few historical studies of seventeenth century French Protestantism and no general 1 historical synthesis for the period as a whole At the time Leonard s observation was accurate Seventeenth century French Protestantism traditionally remained a questionable and problematical subject for historians All too frequently historians neglected it in favor of emphasizing its origins in the second half of the sixteenth century and its renaissance since the French Revolution When the rare historian broke his silence and considered French Protestantism in the seventeenth century was meager and generally ambivalent or negative The historiographer his treatment of seventeenth century French Protestantism could only cite the outstanding works of Jean Pannier and Orentin Douen which taken together emphasized the new pre eminence of Parisian Protestantism in the seventeenth century and the genuine works of synthesis by John Vienot and Matthieu Lelievre which again had to be placed side by side in order to complete coverage of the whole of the seventeenth century The only true intellectual history of seventeenth century French Protestantism was the study by Albert Monod which however dealt with the second half of the century and then only in the broad context of both Protestant and Catholic thought responding to the challenge of modern rationalism
