Romeo Juliet 1990 Neame Christopher:

The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre: i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection. Theatre World 1990-1991 John Willis, 2000-02-01 Theatre World, the statistical and pictorial record of the Broadway and off Broadway season, touring companies, and professional regional companies throughout the United States, has become a classic in its field. The book is complete with cast listings, replacement producers, directors, authors, composers, opening and closing dates, song titles, and much, much more. There are special sections with biographical data, obituary information, listings of annual Shakespeare festivals, and major drama awards. African-Americans and the Quest for Civil Rights, 1900-1990 Sean Dennis Cashman, 1992-12 In this lavishly illustrated volume, Sean Dennis Cashman surveys the history of civil rights in twentieth century America. The book charts the principal course of civil rights against the dramatic backdrop of two world wars, the Great Depression, the affluent society of the postwar world, the cultural and social agitation of the 1960s, and the emergence of the new conservatism of the 1970s and 1980s. Cashman describes the profound upheaval that African Americans experienced as they moved from the outright racism of the South through the Great Migration northward from 1915 and sets the contribution of African American leaders within their historical context: Booker T. Washington, W. E. B. Du Bois, Marcus Garvey, A. Philip Randolph, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King, and many others. The work also describes the shift in emphasis in the movement from legal cases brought before the courts to mass protest movements, and later the change in direction from civil rights to Black Power and later Pan Africanism. Far more than just a history of civil rights leaders, this book explains how the achievements of African American writers, artists, singers, and athletes contributed to a wider understanding of the humanity and culture of black Americans. Cashman details, among others, the achievements of the Harlem Renaissance, the films of Paul Robeson and Marian Anderson, and the works of Langston Hughes, Ralph Ellison, James Baldwin, and Toni Morrison. Written in an engaging style, the text is accompanied by a wealth of illustrations, some well known, others in print for the first time. Routledge Revivals: The

Shakespearean Metaphor (1990) Ralph Berry, 2016-10-04 First published in 1978 this book represents a study of the ways in which Shakespeare exploits the possibilities of metaphor In a series of studies ranging from the early to the mature Shakespeare the author concentrates on metaphor as a controlling structure the extent to which a certain metaphoric idea informs and organises the drama These studies turn constantly to the relations between symbol and metaphor literal and figurative and examine key plays such as Richard III King John Henry V Romeo and Juliet Troilus and Cressida and Coriolanus They also provide a key to The Tempest which is analysed in terms of power and possession the dominant motif
