Aranda, 2022-02 2023 Choice Outstanding Academic Title In The Places of Modernity in Early Mexican American Literature 1848 1948 Jos F Aranda Jr describes the first one hundred years of Mexican American literature He argues for the importance of interrogating the concept of modernity in light of what has emerged as a canon of earlier pre 1968 Mexican American literature In order to understand modernity for diverse communities of Mexican Americans he contends one must see it as an apprehension both symbolic and material of one settler colonial world order giving way to another more powerful colonialist but imperial vision of North America Letters folklore print culture and literary production demonstrate how a new Anglo

American political imaginary revised and realigned centuries old discourses on race gender class religion citizenship power and sovereignty The modern Aranda argues makes itself visible in cultural productions being foisted on a conquered people who were themselves beneficiaries of a notion of the modern that began in 1492 For Mexican Americans modernity is less about any particular angst over global imperial designs or cultures of capitalism and more about becoming the subordinates of a nation building project that ushers the United States into the twentieth century Report of the Public Library,
