Roni Horn Index Cixous:

Index Cixous Roni Horn, 2006-03 Artwork by Roni Horn Index Cixous Roni Horn, 2005-01-01 Inspired by the philosopher and writer Helene Cixous which whom the photographer and artist Roni Horn has collaborated before Index Cixous questions the nature of language in its most fundamental sense and proposes a version one without words but which can be read as any other Both Horn and Cixous are concerned with communication wrought out of material space Cixous writes about women's language arising from the female body and she argues for a new language one not in thrall to patriarchy but that acknowledges the life giving force and history of the feminine Animal Question in Deconstruction

Lynn Turner, 2013-08-20 Explores the political and poetic understanding of the deconstruction of the animal question How does deconstruction understand relations between humans and other animals This collection of essays reveals that across Jacques Derrida's work as a whole as well as that of Helene Cixous and Nicholas Royle deconstruction has always addressed questions about animality In this collection for example Cixous asks after human intervention between the death of a wild bird and the predation of a domestic cat Kelly Oliver pursues Derrida's analysis of what or whose gaze is at stake when a King oversees the autopsy of an elephant Royle examines in what sense the vulnerable impressions made by the tunnelling of a mole might be thought of as the traces of a text Re-examining how we relate to other animals has far reaching implications for how we think of ourselves Across this collection authors bring to attention the politics and the ethics of a less anthropocentric world Even when this world is grasped

Poetry in Painting Helene Cixous, 2012-04-04 The first book by Helene Cixous on painting and the contemporary arts This collection gathers most of Helene Cixous texts devoted to contemporary artists such as the painter Nancy Spero the photographer Andres Serrano the visual artist Roni Horn the fashion designer Sonia Rykiel and the choreographer Karine Saporta among others The artworks belong to different genres and media photography painting installations film choreography and fashion design while the commentaries all deal with some of Helene Cixous privileged themes exile war violence against women and exclusion as well as love memory beauty and tenderness Neither art criticism nor a collection of critical essays Helene Cixous responds to these artworks as a poet reading them as if they were poems Written between 1985 and 2010 most of these essays are unpublished in English or published only in rare catalogues or art books

Frieze Art Fair Yearbook, 2006 Red Dirt Revival: a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths Tim'm West, 2014-06-28 Red Dirt Revival a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths is a collection that offers personal meditations that speaks to vastly diverse and often unanticipated audiences naming vital specifics and moving to the poetic universality of pain and redemption A decade after his brave authorial debut Tim m West is still here to honor the dexterity and resilience of a book that has been everywhere from spoken word stages to black gay men's book clubs to feminist classrooms This expanded edition offers a 7th Breath speaking to the work's enduring power As Christina Accomando writes in the new introduction Red Dirt Revival not surprisingly is both a classic text and a living breathing work of art communication and community Hélène Cixous Metka Zupančič,2007 This is a collection of personal essays dealing with the writings of French novelist Helene Cixous from 1990 to the present day The author Metka Zupancic examines Cixous s literary output through the mythical symbolical and alchemical figures of a New Eurydice and the feminine versions of Hermes and Orpheus In addition Cixous s commitment to literature and aesthetics are closely studied and elaborated This is a highly technical study suitable only for students and scholars of French feminist literature Women, Practice, Architecture Naomi Stead,2016-01-08 The image of the architect is undeniably gendered While the male architect might be celebrated as the ideal man in Hollywood romantic comedies blessed with practicality and creativity in equal measure to impeccable taste and an enviable lifestyle the image of the woman architect is not so clear cut While women have been practicing and excelling in architecture for more than a hundred years their professional identity as constructed in the media is complex and sometimes contradictory This book explores the working lives and aspirations of women in architectural practice but more than this it explores how popular media newspapers magazines and websites serve to define and describe who a woman architect should be what she should look like and how she should behave Looking further into the way that professional characteristics are reinforced through awards like the Pritzker Prize the book demonstrates how idealised characteristics such as sensitivity and vision are seen to be neither entirely masculine nor feminine but instead a complex hybrid owing much to historic concepts of genius Drawing on history sociology media analysis and feminist theories of architectural practice the book will be of interest to all of those who seek to better understand the image and identity of the architect This book was published as a double special issue of Architectural Theory Review French XX Bibliography William J.
