Room On The Broom And Tape:

Tape, I-C-E, and Sound Advice Rod Walters, 2012-09-01 Hall of Fame Rod Walters has enjoyed a wonderful career in sports. As a youth he knew he wanted to be in the health care industry. During the summer of his ninth grade year his parents scholarshiped him to the North Carolina All Star Student Athletic Training Clinic in Greensboro, North Carolina. Little did he know that at this clinic he would meet some of his favorite professionals who would mold and direct his professional career while being exposed to his professional calling. The world of Athletic Training and Sports Medicine involves so many facets in health care today to provide the participant a high standard of care. Regardless of the level of work whether it be the professional football arena, big time college athletics, the highly competitive mid levels of the NCAA, high school football, under the Friday Night Lights, or the outreach role from a Physical Therapy clinic, Athletic Trainers all strive to provide their patients service through the prevention, care, and rehabilitation of sports injuries. Penthouse and Pavement Bill

Leckie, 2012-01-06 Penthouse and Pavement is not a book for glory hunters. It is a book about pain. It's about the anguish of watching your team lose 9-2 in the very first game you ever saw about the horrible inevitability of defeat that so many feel so often. It's about despair, dismay, and black, frightening, deathly gloom. But it's also about hope. About dreams. And about dreams which sometimes just sometimes come true. Like the once in a lifetime ecstasy of winning the Cup or a league. And as anyone who's had that moment of a lifetime knows, the joy is even greater because you've known the pain. For Bill Leckie, who has followed St. Mirren since 1964, it all became worthwhile when they won the Scottish Cup in 1987. This book is about these clubs and the people who love them. It's about the kind of fan who doesn't go to games expecting to win or worse, demanding it. This book is about being willing to accept a lifetime of frustration in return for one day of utter wonderment. The NYPD

Tapes Graham A. Rayman, 2013-08-06 From the Pulitzer Prize nominated reporter, an account of a modern day Serpico's battle with an all-powerful police department, somber and inspiring. Publishers Weekly. In May 2010, NYPD officer Adrian Schoolcraft made national headlines when he released a series of secretly recorded audio tapes exposing corruption and abuse at the highest levels of the police department. But according to a lawsuit filed by Schoolcraft against the City of New York, instead of admitting mistakes and pledging reform, Schoolcraft's superiors forced him into a mental hospital in an effort to discredit the evidence. In The NYPD Tapes, the reporter who first broke the Schoolcraft story brings his ongoing saga up to date, revealing the rampant abuses that continue in the NYPD today, including warrantless surveillance and systemic harassment. Through this lens, he tells the broader tale of how American law enforcement has for the past thirty years been distorted by a ruthless quest for numbers in the form of CompStat, the vaunted data-driven accountability system first championed by New York police chief William Bratton and since implemented in police departments across the country. Forced to produce certain crime stats each quarter or face discipline, cops in New York and everywhere else fudged the numbers, robbing actual crime victims of justice and sweeping countless innocents into the police net. Rayman paints a
