Rooted In Remembering A Collection Of Sermons:

A Choice Collection of Very Valuable Prefaces, Lectures, and Sermons James Renwick, 1776 The Sermon on the Mount Victor Lee Austin, 2025-03-10 Although a central Christian text the Sermon on the Mount remains full of mystery In this book an ecumenical group of scholars guides us from exegesis to theology to application to proclamation Marianne Meye Thompson grounds the Sermon in the narrative of Matthew's Gospel Piotr Ma ysz provides theological amazement at the Sermon being at once law and gospel David Cloutier works with the Sermon to understand and critique our culture of victimhood Brent Waters explores its economic realism Sarah Hinlicky Wilson concludes with a poetic paraphrase and reflections on how to preach on the Sermon as a whole As a special supplement and continuing the concern of Pro Ecclesia for doing theology ecumenically Michael Root examines the changes in the ecumenical movement over the past generation This volume as a whole is offered pro ecclesia for the building up of the church The Sermon Bible: Psalm LXXVII to Song of Solomon, 1900

A Choice Collection of ... Prefaces, Lectures and Sermons, preached on the mountains and muirs of Scotland by ... James Renwick ... To which are added the form of the admission of ruling elders; a reply to Mr. Langlan's letter to G. Wotherspoon; and a testimony to the truths of God ... as is stated by the true Presbyterians of the Church of Scotland, etc James RENWICK (Presbyterian Minister.), 1804 Parish Sermons. Fourth Series. My Duty Towards God, and My Duty Towards My Neighbour Harvey Goodwin (Bishop of Carlisle.), 1856

31 Sermons Lansford Penn-Timothy, 2025-07-09 This collection 31 Sermons Preached at Methodist Central Hall Westminster MCHW captures five years of Spirit led preaching by Revd Lansford Penn Timothy at one of the most iconic pulpits in the Methodist tradition Delivered between 2020 and 2025 these sermons reflect a season marked by global uncertainty spiritual hunger and renewed calls for hope and justice Rooted in Scripture and crafted with pastoral insight and cultural awareness each message explores themes of perseverance grace discipleship and community These sermons speak across generational racial and theological lines More than historical records they are living invitations to reflect repent rejoice and respond to God's ongoing work Whether read devotionally or used in ministry this book offers timeless encouragement and challenge for individuals churches and leaders today Twisted Roots Shelly Goodman Wright, 2012-06 I want to tell you something now I need you to listen closely and don't forget I'm not sure how much time I have He stopped again and shook his head at the sky He then pointed out a vivid star high above them in the moonless sky There are magical places that exist in this world Jess places that the master architect created to balance good and evil The time will come when you will leave this house and enter into another life that awaits you a life you deserve and one with greater purpose You don't know how special you really are Jessica's sole priority for the past thirteen years has been to keep her father alive in the hope he will wake up from his coma and save her Threatening to cut off his life support at any sign of independence her mother has controlled her life even to the point of an arranged engagement to Seth whom Jessica fears even more than her mother

When Jessica accepts this most outrageous demand yet and then discovers her father has passed away anyway she knows she has to escape. She runs until she is lost and bewildered in a Georgia swamp where she discovers the existence of the wonderful place her father hinted at to her when she was only a child. In this magical unreal world just as she begins to discover the truth about her twisted family roots three young men set their eyes on Jessica. One will win her heart one will try to steal it and one will try to kill her.

Memory and the English Reformation Alexandra Walsham, Bronwyn Wallace, Ceri Law, Brian Cummings, 2020-11-12 Recasts the Reformation as a battleground over memory in which new identities were formed through acts of commemoration invention and repression

Roots in the Cotton Patch Kirk Lyman-Barner, Cori Lyman-Barner, 2014-07-11 In honor of what would have been Clarence Jordan's one hundredth birthday and the seventieth anniversary of Koinonia Farm the first Clarence Jordan Symposium convened in historic Sumter County Georgia in 2012 gathering theologians historians actors and activists in civil rights housing agriculture and fair trade businesses to celebrate a remarkable individual and his continuing influence Clarence Jordan 1912-1969 a farmer and New Testament Greek scholar was the author of the Cotton Patch versions of the New Testament and the founder of Koinonia Farm a small but influential religious community in southwest Georgia. Roots in the Cotton Patch Volume 1 contains Symposium presentations addressing Clarence's influence as a storyteller and contextual preacher and prophet his pacifist witness in a violent and segregated South and the contemporary meaning of his life's work in Christian community. Uniting these powerful essays is the obvious impact Jordan's life has had on so many. His life and work continue to inspire a new generation of activists seminary students and people in search of the meaning of Christian community

Jesus Remembered James D. G. Dunn, 2003-07-29 In Christianity in the making James D. G. Dunn examines in depth the major factors that shaped first generation Christianity and beyond exploring the parting of the ways between Christianity and Judaism the Hellenization of Christianity and responses to Gnosticism. He mines all the first and second century sources including the New Testament Gospels New Testament apocrypha and such church fathers as Ignatius Justin Martyr and Irenaeus showing how the Jesus tradition and the figures of James Paul Peter and John were still esteemed influences but were also the subject of intense controversy as the early church wrestled with its evolving identity

Prosthetic Memory Alison Landsberg, 2004 Prosthetic Memory argues that mass cultural forms such as cinema and television in fact contain the still unrealized potential for a progressive politics based on empathy for the historical experiences of others. The technologies of mass culture make it possible for anyone regardless of race ethnicity or gender to share collective memories to assimilate as deeply felt personal experiences historical events through which they themselves did not live

Theology, Explained and Defended in a Series of Sermons Timothy Dwight, 1824

Deep Roots Richard Endress, 2019-07-02 Everyone of us is who and where we are today because of the efforts and decisions of those who came before us our ancestors. This book traces the history of nine of my ancestral families from their small farming villages in Germany through the wrenching decision to leave cherished roots in Europe to the planting of new roots in southern Indiana The book is intended primarily for members of my family but others may find some interest in a small microcosm of the American experience Sermons. Third series John Frederick Denison Maurice, 1860

Roots of Haiti's Vodou-Christian Faith R. Murray Thomas, 2014-06-19 This book traces the development of Haiti's combined Vodou Christian religion from 1500 to the present and explains how this combination of distinct faiths coalesces in a coherent belief system What are the historical reasons for the popularity of two contradictory worldviews in Haiti Vodou and Catholicism What elements of Vodou and Catholicism are alike and how are they drastically different What is the connection between indigenous African religions and Vodou And why has religion in Haiti evidenced an accelerating rate of change in recent decades Roots of Haiti's Vodou Christian Faith African and Catholic Origins answers these questions and more in its examination of the highly unique and often misunderstood religious practices in Haiti Reaching back half a millennium to the European conquest of the island of Haiti author R Murray Thomas inspects the origins and nature of these two competing and complementary religious traditions the traditional African faiths brought by the slaves who were imported to Haiti to labor in the fields and mines and the Catholicism promoted often violently by Spanish and French colonial authorities Following a historical background the subsequent chapters focus on the organization of Haitian religion spirits creation belief causes and ceremonies maxims and tales symbols and sacred objects sacred sites religious societies and the future of the Vodou Christian faith Handbook of Themes for Preaching James W. Cox, 1991-04-15 Experts from various fields offer concise definition analysis and discussion of nearly one hundred preaching topics Subjects discussed include decision making abortion incarnation poverty education the Ten Commandments jealousy wealth stewardship and violence and war The Visionary Preaching of Juana de la Cruz (1481-1534) Pablo Acosta García, 2025-09-25 Step into the world of 16th century Castile where a devout community of Franciscan women preserved the public preaching of their visionary abbess Juana de la Cruz 1481-1534 through writing This groundbreaking book uncovers how her sermons were recorded explores the materiality of the surviving codices and reveals their role in the controversial censorship and blocking of Juana's canonization Tracing the rich tradition of the liturgical vision 12th-16th centuries it delves into female literacy and the creation of collective knowledge in female religious houses around Europe Featuring rare insights and fresh evaluations of historical texts this volume illuminates the intersection of female prophetic preaching community and the written word at the end of the Middle Ages Jesus, the Temple, and Early Christian Memory Scott Brevard, 2025-08-07 Jewish identity during the Second Temple period 515 BCE-70 CE was complex multifaceted and variable but many studies of this period treat Jewish attitudes toward one key feature the Jerusalem temple as simple and uniform Brevard aims to complicate this notion by examining early Christian traditions of Jesus's relationship with the temple Early Christian memory constructed transformed and transmitted traditions about the past into their present contexts Examining early Christian memory as represented by canonical and noncanonical gospel traditions in the first three centuries CE allows scholars to ask how certain figures institutions or beliefs were remembered and represented as well as to posit theories as to why memories were constructed in particular ways and how these memories related to their contemporary historical and social frameworks Early Christians remembered Jesus as having a complex relationship with the Jerusalem temple and these early Christian traditions of Jesus impacted their own contemporary worldviews This complicated relationship with the temple however was not a new phenomenon but one that was already familiar to those constructing experiencing remembering and transmitting their Jewish identity throughout the diaspora world in the Second Temple period
