Gustine, 2019-02-12 How should the local church think about justice Adam Gustine provides a theological vision for the church's identity as a just people where God's character and the pursuit of shalom infuses every aspect of our congregational DNA In this renewed vision the church becomes a prophetic alternative to the broken systems of the world and a parable of God's intentions for human flourishing and societal transformation Prophetic Rage Johnny Bernard Hill, 2013-12-19 In this book Johnny Bernard Hill argues that prophetic rage or righteous anger is a necessary response to our present culture of imperialism and nihilism The most powerful way to resist meaninglessness he says is refusing to accept the realities of structural injustice such as poverty escalating militarism genocide and housing discrimination Hill s Prophetic Rage is interdisciplinary integrating art music and literature with theology It is constructive passionate and provocative Hill weaves through a myriad of creative and prophetic voices of protest from Jesus to W E B DuBois Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and President Barack Obama as well as multiple approaches including liberation theology and black religion to reflect theologically on the nature of liberation justice and hope on contemporary culture Root Strength E-Book Shannon Dames,2021-12-09 Develop resilience and thrive as a care professional Root Strength A Health and Care Professionals Guide to Minimizing Stress and Maximizing Thriving discusses principles of self care that can help you prevent emotional fatigue and job burnout in highly stressful workplaces An evidence based approach examines how the care professional can develop self compassion mindfulness relationships with co workers and perceived satisfaction with one s career Written by noted educator and researcher Shannon Dames this practical manual shows how you can apply these insights on the job and enhance your personal well being in real world health care settings With the prevalence of mental health issues among care professionals including rates of PTSD and major depressive disorder MDD appearing much higher than that in the general population never has a resource like this been more required Focus on both theory and practice allows for self assessment and the ability to build resilience and thrive with concepts underpinned by research UNIQUE Journeys case studies highlight a care professional s real world experience concerns encouraging you to think about how you would handle the situation as you read through the chapter the chapter closes with an effective method to handle the real life situation demonstrating how to apply the lessons learned UNIQUE Clear and conversational writing style and metaphorical roots tree framework makes it easier to understand concepts Practical exercises throughout the text allow you to build and strengthen your own metaphorical roots Vignettes demonstrate how concepts apply to real world scenarios Attuning for the Journey Ahead sums up the content at the end of each chapter ensuring that you understand the key concepts UNIQUE Special boxes contributed by Dr Crosbie Watler MD FRCPC help you understand and navigate through professionals mental health challenges

Taiwan in the Era of Tsai Ing-wen June Teufel Dreyer,Jacques deLisle,2021-04-25 This book assesses the forces that led to the election of Tsai Ing wen and the Democratic Progressive Party DPP in 2016 and re election in 2020 and provides the first comprehensive treatment of this pivotal period in Taiwan s politics policy and international relations The Democratic Progressive Party s victory in Taiwan s 2016 presidential and legislative elections marked several significant turning points The third peaceful transition of power between political parties during Taiwan s democratic era heralded further consolidation of Taiwan s democracy and Tsai Ing wen s election gave the Republic of China its first female president Her administration has pursued an ambitious agenda of domestic and foreign policy reforms and has faced challenges that include steering through economic transitions addressing contentious issues of social justice national identity and cultural change and navigating an external environment defined by an increasingly powerful and hostile China and a more supportive but less predictable United States In Taiwan in the Era of Tsai Ing wen leading experts from the US and Taiwan chart the progress and problems of Tsai s first term and the prospects for Taiwan during her second term and beyond As a study of a crucial era of politics in Taiwan this book will appeal to students and scholars of Taiwan studies Political Science Law Economics and International Relations Subterranean Dan White,2015-08-24 The landscape of Christian spirituality in the West is no longer lush with green grass and wild flowers blooming Instead across the country we find dry terrain where churches no longer can expect interested seekers yet most of our solutions for addressing this predicament link to anxiety around our performance and personality Rather than going back to the boardroom to cook up new techniques for a trendier church let s ask more meaningfully rooted questions Do we know how to be present in our neighborhoods Do we know how to be present in community Do we know how to be present to the in breaking kingdom of God There is a growing groundswell discovering that we have become uprooted and detached from each other in the way we express being the church We need a subterranean movement that plunges below the surface into a way of being the people of God that carries an unwavering incarnational creed Dan White Jr uses crisp criticism narrative theology and tangible practices to uncover a hopeful pathway for being radically rooted in God s world Cultivating Community Amanda Shankland,2024-09-01 In the face of escalating water scarcity effective water management has become a central concern globally The Murray Darling Basin spanning over a million square kilometres across four states and one territory is a lifeline for Australian agriculture and rural communities Cultivating Community How discourse shapes the philosophy practice and policy of water management in the Murray Darling Basin dissects the prevailing environmental discourses shaping water policy in the Murray Darling Basin and assesses their implications for both the environment and for farming communities Drawing on five months of extensive field research among farmers and Murray Darling Basin Authority officials Dr Amanda Shankland presents a nuanced understanding of farmer perspectives within the broader policy discourse By examining the interplay between environmental discourses and farmer knowledge Shankland sheds light on how different ideologies shape policy decisions and subsequently impact water management practices Central to the book s contribution is the identification and analysis of four key environmental discourses prevalent in the Murray Darling Basin administrative rationalism economic rationalism democratic pragmatism and green environmentalism Against the backdrop of looming water scarcity and the declining health of the Murray Darling Basin Cultivating Community challenges these dominant discourses by highlighting a new perspective community centrism which emphasises community based cooperation and engagement in water management By amplifying farmer voices and advocating for a more inclusive approach to policy deliberations Cultivating Community paves the way for alternative futures in water management that prioritise social values alongside economic and environmental considerations Cultivating Community is a timely and indispensable resource for charting a path towards a more resilient and equitable water future in the Murray Darling Basin and beyond This Sacred Earth Roger S. Gottlieb,1996 This is the first comprehensive survey of the critical connections between religion nature and the environment It includes writings from sacred texts and a broad spectrum of new eco theological selections Historical and contemporary selections from key authors and a multicultural range of sources make This Sacred Earth an invaluable teaching resource and a unique introduction to the theory and practice of religious environmentalism Learning Gardens and Sustainability Education Dilafruz Williams,Jonathan Brown,2013-05-13 Offering a fresh approach to bringing life to schools and schools to life this book goes beyond touting the benefits of learning gardens to survey them as a whole systems design solution with potential to address myriad interrelated social ecological and educational issues The theoretical and conceptual framework presented creatively places soil at the center of the discourse on sustainability education and learning garden design and pedagogy Seven elements and attributes of living soil and learning gardens are presented as a guide for sustainability education cultivating a sense of place fostering curiosity and wonder discovering rhythm and scale valuing biocultural diversity embracing practical experience nurturing interconnectedness The living soil of learning gardens forms the basis of a new metaphoric language serving to contest dominant mechanistic metaphors presently influencing educational discourse Student voices and examples from urban schools provide practical understanding of how bringing life to schools can indeed bring schools to life Cultivating Food Justice Alison Hope Alkon,Julian Agyeman,2011-10-21 Documents how racial and social inequalities are built into our food system and how communities are creating environmentally sustainable and socially just alternatives Popularized by such best selling authors as Michael Pollan Barbara Kingsolver and Eric Schlosser a growing food movement urges us to support sustainable agriculture by eating fresh food produced on local family farms But many low income neighborhoods and communities of color have been systematically deprived of access to healthy and sustainable food These communities have been actively prevented from producing their own food and often live in food deserts where fast food is more common than fresh food Cultivating Food Justice describes their efforts to envision and create environmentally sustainable and socially just alternatives to the food system Bringing together insights from studies of environmental justice sustainable agriculture critical race theory and food studies Cultivating Food Justice highlights the ways race and class inequalities permeate the food system from production to distribution to consumption The studies offered in the book explore a range of important issues including agricultural and land use policies that systematically disadvantage Native American African American Latino a and Asian American farmers and farmworkers access problems in both urban and rural areas efforts to create sustainable local food systems in low income communities of color and future directions for the food justice movement These diverse accounts of the relationships among food environmentalism justice race and identity will help guide efforts to achieve a just and sustainable agriculture Putting Intellectual Property in Its Place Laura J. Murray,S. Tina Piper,Kirsty Robertson,2014-03 Putting Intellectual Property in its Place examines the relationship between creativity and intellectual property law on the premise that despite concentrated critical attention devoted to IP law from academic policy and activist quarters its role as a determinant of creative activity is overstated The effects of IP rights or law are usually more unpredictable non linear or illusory than is often presumed Through a series of case studies focusing on nineteenth century journalism fake art plant hormone research between the wars online knitting communities creativity in small cities and legal practice the authors discuss the many ways people comprehend the law through information and opinions gathered from friends strangers coworkers and the media They also show how people choose to share create negotiate and dispute based on what seems fair just or necessary in the context of how their community functions in that moment while ignoring or reimagining legal mechanisms In this book authors Murray Piper and Robertson define the everyday life of IP law constituting an experiment in non normative legal scholarship and in building theory from material and located practice

Democracy as Fetish Ralph Cintron, 2019-12-10 Democracy has long been fetishized Consequently how we speak about democracy and what we expect from democratic governance are at odds with practice With unflinching resolve this book probes the theory of democracy and how the left and right are fascinated by it In this innovative multidisciplinary study Ralph Cintron provides sustained analysis of our political discourse He shows not only how the rhetoric of democracy produces strong desires for social order global wealth and justice but also how these desires cannot be satisfied Throughout his discussion Cintron includes ethnographic research from fieldwork conducted over the course of twenty years in the Latino neighborhoods of Chicago where he observes both citizens and the undocumented looking to democracy to fulfill their highest aspirations Politicians hand out favors to the elite developers strong arm aldermen and the disenfranchised have little redress The problem Cintron argues is that the conditions required to put democracy into practice territory a bordered nation state citizens property are constituted by inequality and violence because there is no inclusivity that does not also exclude Drawing on ethnography economics political theory and rhetorical analysis Cintron makes his case with tremendous analytic rigor This challenge to reassess the discourses on democracy and to consider democratic politics as always compromised by oligarchy will be of particular interest to political and rhetorical theorists Anthropocene Ecologies of Food Simon C. Estok, S. Susan Deborah, Rayson K. Alex, 2022-06-22 Anthropocene Ecologies of Food provides a detailed exploration of cross cultural aspects of food production culinary practices and their ecological underpinning in culture The authors draw connections between humans and the entire process of global food production focusing on the broad implications these processes have within the geographical and cultural context of India Each chapter analyzes and critiques existing agricultural food practices and representations of aspects of food through various media such as film literature and new media as they relate to global issues generally and Indian contexts specifically correcting the omission of analyses focused on the Global South in virtually all of the work that has been done on Anthropocene ecologies of food This unique volume employs an ecocritical framework that connects food with the land in physical and virtual communities and the book as a whole interrogates the meanings and implications of the Anthropocene itself Alain Locke on the Theoretical Foundations for a Just and Successful Peace Corey L. Barnes, 2022-11-04 Alain Locke is most known for his involvement in the Harlem Renaissance However he received his PhD in philosophy from Harvard University in 1918 and produced a very large corpus of philosophical work His work shows him to have been a sophisticated philosopher who thought through practical and theoretical problems regarding the nature of cosmopolitanism democracy race value religion art and education Although Locke s philosophical work has been discussed in parts there has been no theorizing about how his different philosophical commitments fit together In this book Corey L Barnes begins to systematize Locke s philosophical thought showing how his democratic theory philosophy of race and value theory are connected to and undergirded by a commitment to cosmopolitanism In so doing Barnes unearths aspects of Locke s thought for example his economic thinking that have not been accorded attention and reimagines parts of his work about which have been theorized all while bringing Locke into current debates about each subject Ecojustice Adult Education: Theory and Practice in the Cultivation of the Cultural Commons Audrey M.
