Roots Of Gospel Part 1:

Canada's Residential Schools: The History, Part 1, Origins to 1939 Commission de vérité et réconciliation du Canada, 2016-01-01 Between 1867 and 2000 the Canadian government sent over 150 000 Aboriginal children to residential schools across the country Government officials and missionaries agreed that in order to civilize and Christianize Aboriginal children it was necessary to separate them from their parents and their home communities For children life in these schools was lonely and alien Discipline was harsh and daily life was highly regimented Aboriginal languages and cultures were denigrated and suppressed Education and technical training too often gave way to the drudgery of doing the chores necessary to make the schools self sustaining Child neglect was institutionalized and the lack of supervision created situations where students were prey to sexual and physical abusers Legal action by the schools former students led to the creation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada in 2008 The product of over six years of research the Commission s final report outlines the history and legacy of the schools and charts a pathway towards reconciliation Canada s Residential Schools The History Part 1 Origins to 1939 places Canada s residential school system in the historical context of European campaigns to colonize and convert Indigenous people throughout the world In post Confederation Canada the government adopted what amounted to a policy of cultural genocide suppressing spiritual practices disrupting traditional economies and imposing new forms of government Residential schooling quickly became a central element in this policy The destructive intent of the schools was compounded by chronic underfunding and ongoing conflict between the federal government and the church missionary societies that had been given responsibility for their day to day operation A failure of leadership and resources meant that the schools failed to control the tuberculosis crisis that gripped the schools for much of this period Alarmed by high death rates Aboriginal parents often refused to send their children to the schools leading the government adopt ever more coercive attendance regulations While parents became subject to ever more punitive regulations the government did little to regulate discipline diet fire safety or sanitation at the schools By the period s end the government was presiding over a nation wide series of firetraps that had no clear educational goals and were economically dependent on the unpaid labour of underfed and often sickly children Mark James Hoover, 1999-06-08 In the New Testament Gospel of Mark we meet Jesus the man who is King But this king comes to serve not to be served He eats with sinners rather than royalty His crown is made of thorns instead of gold This twenty session LifeGuide Bible Study guide introduces you to the compassionate suffering astonishing king who calls us to follow him Preface. Miracles. The Synoptic gospels, pt. 1.- v. 2. The Synoptic gospels, pt. 2. The Fourth gospel.- v. 3. The Acts of the apostles. The direct evidence for miracles. The resurrection and ascension Walter Richard Cassels, 1879 The Quest for the Origin of John's Gospel Thomas L. Brodie, 1993-07-29 Drawing on the insights of ancient literary theory and practice this book seeks to unlock the age old puzzle of the relationship of John s gospel to the other gospels and to the early Christian church Applying a new method to an old problem Brodie uses a form of source analysis that takes account of the practices of ancient writers to reveal John as someone who deliberately rendered the earlier gospels into a new language The deeply theological and at the same time more down to earth voice characteristic of John is revealed to be not that of a marginal community the Johannine community but of an independent prophetic presence within the mainstream church The Quest of the Historical Gospel Lawrence M. Bird argues that Jesus was attempting to achieve and enact the restoration of Israel and in continuity with other strands of Jewish belief Jesus conceived of the restoration of Israel as resulting in the salvation of the gentiles Jesus mission was Israel centric but he espoused a view of restoration that was indebted to certain strands of Israel s sacred traditions where the gentiles are implicit beneficiaries of Israel s salvation Since this restoration was already being partially realized in Jesus ministry it was becoming possible for gentiles to begin sharing in Israel s salvation in the present Additionally Jesus understood himself and his followers to be the new temple and the vanguard of the restored Israel who would appropriate for themselves the role of Israel and the temple in being a light to the nations Thus a gentile mission has its germinal roots in the aims and intentions of Jesus and was developed in a transformed situation by adherents of the early Christian movement

Fiensy,2014-07-22 What does economics have to do with Christian origins Why study such a connection First of all the New Testament makes many direct references to economic issues But second the economy affects every other aspect of life family religion community work health and politics To understand what it was like to live in a society one must understand what the economy was doing The study of the economy includes not only the goods and services of a society but also human labor and its control For one it entails the size of the pie of goods How prosperous was first century Galilee But the study of economy also takes account of the slice of the pie that each family obtained How fair was the economy to each family Those involved in the quest for the historical Jesus have discovered that the ancient economy is a major point of dispute among various interpreters Was the early Jesus movement a socioeconomic protest Or was it primarily a religious reform These two approaches understand Jesus in remarkably different ways This volume seeks to guide readers through some of the most controversial issues raised in the last twenty years on this
