Spindel, 2021-08-24 Experienced community organizer and professor Patricia Spindel provides a practical guide for producing change through community action and social activism in the updated second edition of Changing Communities Spindel explores who has power in society and how communities can mobilize to create positive change by building capacity developing community structures and taking direct action to shift power relations Outlining a practical approach to asset mapping creating community economic development strategies and critiquing some current approaches to community development the chapters cover topics including the impact of corruption and the influence of powerful interests community strengths and needs assessment community based research various community development strategies and the principles and some of the tactics used in community organization Equipped with case studies and practical examples this fundamental guide is an essential resource for students in community development social service work gerontology and other human services and helping professions FEATURES Includes a community strengths based assessment framework developed by the author referred to as the Strengths Assets Challenges and Opportunities Assessment SACO Offers case studies and practical examples from Canada and the United States Provides students with practical knowledge on how to build powerful coalitions raise funds for grassroots projects and deal with the press and social media including how to write a press release

Collaborating for Change Susan D. Greenbaum, Glenn Jacobs, Prentice Zinn, 2020-01-17 Across the U S immigrants laborers domestic workers low income tenants indigenous communities and people experiencing homelessness are conducting research to fight for justice Collaborating for Change A Participatory Action Research Casebook documents the stories of a dozen community based research projects Academics and their partners share authorship about the importance of gathering credible evidence both for organizing and persuading The emphasis is on community organizations involved in struggles for equality and justice Research projects directly engage community partners in all phases of the research process Finally the stories capture how the research changes the roles of researchers and those being researched The book is designed for students but also for community organizers social justice activists and their research allies it offers real stories and real projects that show how democratizing research supports social change and heightens our understanding of complex social issues

This Is an Uprising Mark Engler, Paul Engler, 2016-02-09 This is an Uprising traces the evolution of civil resistance providing new insights into the contributions of early experimenters such as Mohandas Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr groundbreaking theorists such as Gene Sharp and Frances Fox Piven and contemporary practitioners who have toppled repressive regimes in countries such as South Africa Serbia and Egypt Drawing from discussions with activists now working to defend human rights challenge corporate corruption and combat climate change the Englers show how people with few resources and little influence in conventional politics can nevertheless engineer momentous upheavals Although it continues to prove its importance in political life the strategic use of nonviolent action is poorly understood Nonviolence is usually studied as a philosophy or moral code rather than as a method of political conflict disruption and escalation This is an Uprising corrects this oversight

Race and Space Lisa Leitz, 2022-10-24 Emphasising location specific human experience and incorporating insights from geography Race and Space s careful study of the differences of physical spaces gives rise to more complete explanations for social issues and variances in social movements

Interpersonal Social Work Skills for Community Practice Donna Hardina, 2012-07-23 Specifically dedicated to the skills that social workers need to advance community practice this creative book is long overdue Grounded in the wisdom and evidence of well honed interpersonal social work skills Donna Hardina s new text takes community practice to a higher level than ever before developed in book form indeed she displays the most thorough understanding of research on community practice that I have read in any community practice text Journal of Teaching in Social Work Community organization has been a major component of social work practice since the late 19th century It requires a diverse set of abilities interpersonal skills being among the most important This textbook describes the essential interpersonal skills that social workers need in community practice and helps students cultivate them Drawing from empirical literature on community social work practice and the author s own experience working with community organizers the book focuses on developing the macro level skills that are especially useful for community organizing It covers relationship building interviewing recruitment community assessment facilitating group decision making and task planning creating successful interventions working with organizations and program evaluation along with examples of specific applications For clarity and ease of use the author employs a framework drawn from a variety of community practice models including social action and social planning transformative popular education and community development approaches and multicultural and feminist approaches The text is linked to the competencies outlined in the Council of Social Work Education's 2008 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS as well as ethics and values identified in the National Association of Social Workers NASW Code of Ethics and the International Federation of Social Workers statement of ethical principles Most chapters begin with a quote from a community organizer explaining how interpersonal skills are used in practice and student exercises conclude each chapter The text also addresses other important skills such as legislative advocacy lobbying and supervision Key Features Describes the essential skills social workers need in community practice and how to acquire them Includes examples of specific applications drawn from empirical literature and the author's experience working with community organizers Grounded in social justice strengths based and human rights perspectives Linked to competencies outlined in EPAS and values identified in the NASW Code of Ethics Based on a variety of community practice models

The Handbook of Community Practice Marie Weil, Michael S. Reisch, Mary L. Ohmer, 2013 Written by some of the most influential scholars in the field this Handbook covers community development organizing planning and social change as well as key issues fields of practice and global approaches

Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare Meredith Minkler, 2012-07-16 The third edition of Community Organizing and Community Building for Health and Welfare provides new and more established ways to approach community building and organizing from collaborating with communities on assessment and issue selection to using the power of coalition building media advocacy and social media to enhance the effectiveness of such work With a strong emphasis on cultural relevance and humility this collection offers a wealth of case studies in areas ranging from childhood obesity to immigrant worker rights to health care reform A tool kit of appendixes includes guidelines for assessing coalition effectiveness exercises for critical reflection on our own power and privilege and training tools such as policy bingo From former organizer and now President Barack Obama to academics and professionals in the fields of public health social work urban planning and community psychology the book offers a comprehensive vision and on the ground examples of the many ways community building and organizing can help us address some of the most intractable health and social problems of our times Dr Minkler's course syllabus Although Dr Minkler has changed the order of some chapters in the syllabus to accommodate guest speakers and help students prep for the midterm assignment she uses she arranged the actual book layout in a way that should flow quite naturally if instructors wish to use it in the order in which chapters appear

Youth-Led Community Organizing Melvin Delgado, Lee Staples, 2008 Youth led organizing is increasingly receiving attention from scholars activists and the media Delgado and Staples have produced the first comprehensive study of this dynamic field Their well organized book takes an important step toward bridging the gap between academic knowledge and community practice in this growing area The Nation Guide to the Nation Richard Lingeman, Nation Magazine, 2009-01-06 The essential lifestyle guide for the millions of progressives on both coasts The Nation Guide to The Nation will help left of center types find left leaning shops cultural institutions and gathering places in their own hometowns and on the road CULTURAL Art collectives activist documentaries political circuses film festivals writers colonies left brained bookstores arts advocacy groups indie book publishers the 25 greatest political movies detective stories for liberals SOCIAL Organic and slow food restaurants political saloons and bars bookshop caf s and conversational coffeehouses sexy singles meet ups reading clubs and discussion groups camps for radical kids parades and festivals parks and preserves ENVIRONMENTAL Activist groups monkey wrenchers and sea shepherds eco friendly products favorite green markets super co ops eco tourism farm communes energy solutions ORGANIZATIONS Peace and anti nuclear feminist GLBT economic policy immigrant rights labor issues campaign finance reform civil liberties radical mouthpieces liberal think tanks MEDIA Left talk radio press watchdogs anti corporate media regional and local papers alternative weeklies a guide to the blogosphere GOODS AND SERVICES Natural food stores no sweat clothing socially conscious mutual funds political tours eco beers and hemp pretzels funeral homes and cemeteries for a green send off
