Postcolonial Postmortems Christine Matzke, Susanne Muehleisen, 2006

Recent crime fiction increasingly transcends national boundaries with investigators operating across countries and continents Frequently the detective is a migrant or comes from a transcultural background To solve the crime the investigator is called upon to decipher the meanings hidden in clues and testimonies that require transcultural forms of understanding For the reader the investigation discloses new interpretive methods and processes of social investigation often challenging facile interpretations of the postcolonial world order Under the rubric postcolonial postmortems this collection of essays seeks to explore the tropes issues and themes that characterise this emergent form of crime fiction But what does the postcolonial bring to the genre apart from the well known and valid discourses of resistance subversion and ethnicity And why postmortems A dissection and medical examination of a body to determine the cause of death the postmortem of the postcolonial not only alludes to the investigation of the victim's remains but also to the body of the individual text and its contexts This collection interrogates literary concepts of postcoloniality and crime from transcultural perspectives in the attempt to offer new critical impulses to the study of crime fiction and postcolonial literatures International scholars offer insights into the postcolonial postmortems of a wide range of texts by authors from Africa South Asia the Asian and African Diaspora and Australia including Robert G Barrett Unity Dow Wessel Ebersohn Romesh Gunsekera Kazuo Ishiguro Sujata Massey Alexander McCall Smith and Michael Ondaatje

"Father" Who Are You.. Matthew Van Dorn, 2019-05-08 Matthew Van Dorn in fact the writer of this book was born and raised in Amsterdam but on first sight clear of tropical origin son of a white Dutch mother and a white Dutch stepfather After his turbulent youth years in the Amsterdam of the early fifties and sixties plus an early marriage he is becoming increasingly interested in his other Indonesian branch of origin His mother Rosa plays a crucial role in the spiritual development of his life A kind of a love hate relationship He decides to make a trip with a travel group through Indonesia to hopefully find something of his roots This book deals in particular with that journey and the ups and downs of such a travel company with flashbacks from his early childhood and the story of his biological father from Indonesia as the second story line in Flash backs

In the Shadow of Angels Charles Maldon Sr., 2010-03-30 In his book In the Shadow of Angels Charles Maldon reflects upon that season of his life when he was without the peace of God He presents the contribution of several extraordinary saints whom he addresses as angels who are largely responsible for his journey and victory into the perfect peace of God He reveals the uniqueness of each angel and relates the love and care provided by each when he needed someone to encourage and stand by him on his march toward his purpose and calling in God These individuals displayed strength and character that became an incentive for him to strive to be the best person that God ordained him to be Without them being there his life in the Deep South would almost definitely have taken a different direction By the mercy of God he encountered each of them at a time when he was in desperate need of love and encouragement to keep from fainting Each of them left him with a lifetime memory and a victory of healing and peace and thankfulness
