The Poetry of Life in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-03-09 Poetry of life in literature and through literature and the vast territory in between as vast as human life itself where they interact and influence each other is the nerve of human existence Whether we are aware of it or not we are profoundly dissatisfied with the stark reality of life s swift progress onward and the enigmatic and irretrievable meaning of the past And so we dramatise our existence probing deeply for a lyrical and heartfelt yet universally valid sense of our experience It is in great works of literature that we seek those hidden springs that so move us It is in honour of this search that this collection focuses on the creative imagination at work in literature and aesthetics

The Ground of Our Beseeking Peter Sharpe, 2004 The Ground of Our Beseeking Metaphor and the Poetics of Meditation describes the signature styles of meditation in three American poets and shows how each generated language out of spiritual yearning The author s inquiry in this area grew out of an interest in the interplay of creativity language and religion and a need to know as both critic and practicing poet how metaphor arises particularly in the context of poetry which hearkens after the sacred How far in other words has metaphor taken some of our central poets T S Eliot Wallace Stevens and Theodore Roethke in matters of belief No other critique of American poetry prior to this study has systematically linked the idea of the sacred with the practice of metaphor Nor has a compelling case been made until now for viewing meditation a style of thinking close to prayer as the source or ground of these poets

The Visible and the Invisible in the Interplay between Philosophy, Literature and Reality Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2002-03-31 Merleau Ponty s categories of the visible and the invisible are investigated afresh and with originality in this penetrating collection of literary and philosophical inquiries Going beyond the traditional and current references to the mental and the sensory mind and body perceptual content and the abstract ideas conveyed in language etc these studies range from the hidden spheres of reality to the play of the visible and the invisible left as traces in works of human genius the origins of intellect and language the real and the imaginary in literature and the hidden realities in the philosophy of the everyday world These literary and philosophical probings collectively reveal the role of this disjointed conjoined pairing in the ontopoietic establishment of reality that is in the manifestation of the logos of life In tandem they bring to light the hidden play of the visible and the invisible in the emergence of our vital societal intimate intellectual and creative involvements Redeeming Time Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2007-05-15 This exploration of T S Eliot's last major poem Four Quartets examines the poem's potential to transform readers' faith journeys Kramer shows that the power of Four Quartets is its ability to create a dynamic interaction between the poem and the reader that promotes a genuine connection with the natural world with others and with the Divine
