McClurg & Co, 1903 The American Catalogue, 1905 American national trade bibliography Kate Chopin Per Seyersted, 1980-04-01 Kate Chopin was a nationally acclaimed short story artist of the local color school when she in 1899 shocked the American reading public with The Awakening a novel which much resembles Madame Bovary Though the critics praised the artistic excellence of the book it was generally condemned for its objective treatment of the sensuous independent heroine Deeply hurt by the censure Mrs Chopin wrote little more and she was soon forgotten For decades the few critics who remembered her concentrated on the regional aspects of her work In the Literary History of the United States where Kate Chopin is highly praised as a local colorist The Awakening is not even mentioned In recent years however a few critics have given new attention to the novel emphasizing its courageous realism In the present book Mr Seyersted carries out an extensive re-examination of both the life and work of the author basing it on her total oeuvre Much new Kate Chopin material such as previously unknown stories letters and a diary has recently come to light We can now see that she was a much more ambitious and purposeful writer than we have hitherto known From the beginning her special theme was female self-assertion As each new success increased her self-confidence she grew more and more daring in her descriptions of emancipated woman who wants to dictate her own life Mr Seyersted traces the author's growth as an artist and as a penetrating interpreter of the female condition and shows how her career culminated in The Awakening and the unknown story The Storm With these works which were decades ahead of their time Kate Chopin takes her place among the important American realist writers of the 1890 s
