Akerman, 2010-11-15 Finding one's way with a map is a relatively recent phenomenon In premodern times maps were used if at all mainly for planning journeys in advance not for guiding travelers on the road With the exception of navigational sea charts the use of maps by travelers only became common in the modern era indeed in the last two hundred years maps have become the most ubiquitous and familiar genre of modern cartography Examining the historical relationship between travelers navigation and maps Cartographies of Travel and Navigation considers the cartographic response to the new modalities of modern travel brought about by technological and institutional developments in the twentieth century Highlighting the ways in which the travelers operators and planners of modern transportation systems value maps as both navigation tools and as representatives of a radical new mobility this collection brings the cartography of travel by road sea rail and air to the forefront placing maps at the center of the history of travel and movement Richly and colorfully illustrated Cartographies of Travel and Navigation ably fills the void in historical literature on transportation mapping Take the Slow Road: France Martin Dorey, 2021-05-13 Forget hurrying Forget putting your foot down and racing through sweeping bends Forget the understeer whatever that is Forget the blur of a life lived too fast This is a look at taking life slowly It's about taking the time to enjoy journeys and places for their own sake It's about stopping and putting the kettle on Stopping to take a picture Stopping to enjoy stopping How are you going to do it In a camper van or a motorhome of course In this book we define the best driving routes around France for camper vans and motorhomes We show you the coolest places to stay what to see what to do and explain why it s special We meander around France on the most breathtaking roads chugging up mountain passes and pootling along the coast We show you stuff that s fun often free We include the best drives for different kinds of drivers for walkers wine quaffers climbers and skiers We include the steepest the bendiest the most picturesque and most interesting And you don t even have to own a camper van or motorhome we ll tell you the many places you can rent one to take you on the journey All of this is interspersed with beautiful photos handy maps and quirky travel writing from the king of camper vans and motorhomes Martin Dorey So if all you want to do is flick through it on a cold day and plan your next outing you ll be transported albeit slowly to vineyards beaches mountains and highways that make you want to turn the key and go go go

Cartography in France, 1660-1848 Josef Konvitz, 1987 French scientists engineers and public officials were responsible for the most important and distinctive innovations in cartography in eighteenth century Europe By expanding the analytical uses of maps by establishing unprecedented standards of accuracy and by nurturing institutional frameworks to sustain mapping projects over many years the French contributed to one of the central concepts of modern times that man through direct observation and accumulated information can better understand and manage his affairs Concentrating on how and why new concepts and techniques of making and using maps were introduced Josef Konvitz skillfully traces the modernization of cartography during the French Enlightenment The story he unfolds is not merely a narrative of who did what but an analysis of how the map itself influenced attitudes toward the land and the consequent effects on planning and the development of resources Throughout Konvitz demonstrates the significant relationship between cartography and political economic and military life He emphasizes efforts to enlarge the practical applications of maps in government and the impact of government policy on the evolution of cartography
