Huntington Library and Art Gallery (Calif),1963 Book Illustration in the Long Eighteenth Century Christina Ionescu,Renata Schellenberg,2015-01-12 Hitherto relegated to the closets of art history and literary studies book illustration has entered mainstream scholarship The chapters of this collection offer only a glimpse of where a complete reconfiguration of the visual periphery of eighteenth century texts might ultimately take us The use of the gerund of the verb to reconfigure in the subtitle of this collection instead of the corresponding noun underlines the work in progress character of this interdisciplinary endeavour which aims above all to discern new vistas while charting or revisiting landmarks in the rich field of eighteenth century book illustration The specific interpretive lenses through which contributors to this collection re evaluate the visual periphery of the text cover an array of disciplines and areas of interest among these the most prominent are book history and print culture art history and image theory material and visual culture word and image interaction feminist theory and gender studies history of medicine and technology This spectrum could have been even less restrictive and more colourful if it were not for pragmatic and editorial considerations Nonetheless its plurality of vision provides a framework for an inclusive and multifaceted approach to eighteenth century book illustration Perhaps these essays are most valuable in the practical models they provide on how to tackle the interdisciplinary challenge that is the study of the eighteenth century illustrated book The collection as such is the first formal step in an effort to rethink or reconfigure the visual periphery of eighteenth century texts It has become clear that the study of the illustrated book of the Age of Enlightenment has the potential of yielding multiple findings perspectives and discourses about a society immersed in visual culture skilled in visual communication and reflected in the visual legacy it left behind City of Laughter Vic Gatrell,2007-01-01 Drawing upon the satirical prints of the eighteenth century the author explores what made Londoners laugh and offers insight into the origins of modern attitudes toward sex celebrity and ridicule Sale Catalogues American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),inc American art association Aderson galleries,1921 The Art Journal ,1864 Zofloya Charlotte Dacre,1997-06-10 The protagonist of Charlotte Dacre s best known novel Zofloya or the Moor 1806 is unique in women s Gothic and Romantic literature and has more in common with the heroines of Sade or M G Lewis than with those of Ann Radcliffe Charlotte Smith or Jane Austen No heroine of Radcliffe or Austen could exult as Victoria does in this novel that there is certainly a pleasure in the infliction of prolonged torment The sexual desires and ambition of Dacre s protagonist Victoria drive her to seduce torture and murder Victoria is inspired to greater criminal and illicit acts by a seductive Lucifer disguised as a Moor before she too is plunged into an abyss by her demon lover The text s unusual evocations of the female body and feminine subject are of particular interest in the context of the history of sexuality and of the body after embarking on a series of violent crimes Victoria s body actually begins to grow stronger and decidedly more masculine Among the documents included as appendices to this volume are a selection of Dacre s poetry and excerpts from Bienville s Nymphomania a medical treatise of the time aimed at a lay audience that focuses largely on the dangerous powers of women s imagination inspired by improper novels it is alleged that women may plunge into madness violence and death much as does the protagonist of Zofloya herself The art journal London ,1864 Sale American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),1921 The collector, articles repr. from The Queen, ed. by E. Deane Queen,1907 Sale Anderson Galleries, Inc,1921 The Sporting Library of Mr. William Brewster of New York City ,1921 The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc ,1827 Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century European Drawings Richard R.
