Something about the Author Kevin S. Hile, 1995 Series covers individuals ranging from established award winners to authors and illustrators who are just beginning their careers Entries cover personal life career writings and works in progress adaptations additional sources and photographs Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism's constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon Gerald Max,2023-08-18 Richard Halliburton 1900 1939 considered the world s first celebrity travel writer swam the length of the Panama Canal recreated Ulysses voyages in the Mediterranean crossed the Alps on an elephant flew around the world in a biplane and descended into the Mayan Well of Death all the while chronicling his own adventures Several books treat his life and travels yet no book has addressed in detail Halliburton s most ambitious expedition an attempt to sail across the Pacific Ocean in a Chinese junk Set against the backdrop of a China devastated by invading Japanese armies and the storm clouds of world war gathering in Europe Halliburton and a crew of fourteen set out to build and sail the Sea Dragon a junk or ancient sailing ship from Hong Kong to San Francisco for the Golden Gate International Exposition After battling through crew conflicts and frequent delays the Sea Dragon set sail on March 4 1939 Three weeks after embarking the ship encountered a typhoon and disappeared without a trace Richly enhanced with historic photographs Richard Halliburton and the Voyage of the Sea Dragon follows the dramatic arc of this ill fated expedition in fine detail Gerry Max artfully unpacks the tensions between Halliburton and his captain John Wenlock Welch owing much to Welch s homophobia and Halliburton s unconcealed homosexuality And while Max naturally explores the trials and tribulations of preparing constructing and finally launching the Sea Dragon he also punctuates the story with the invasion of China by the Japanese as Halliburton and his letters home reveal an excellent wartime reporter Max mines these documents many of which have only recently come to light as well as additional letters from Halliburton and his crew to family and friends photographs films and tape recordings to paint an intricate portrait of Halliburton s final expedition from inception to tragic end Los Angeles School Journal ,1927 The Forum ,1928 Susan Sontag Carl Rollyson,Lisa

Paddock,2016-08-25 This first biography of Susan Sontag 1933 2004 is now fully revised and updated providing an even more intimate portrayal of the influential writer s life and career The authors base this revision on Sontag s newly released private correspondence including emails and the letters and memoirs of those who knew her best The authors reveal as never before her early years in Tucson and Los Angeles her conflicted relationship with her mother her longing for her absent father and her precocious achievements at the University of California Berkeley and the University of Chicago Papers diaries and lecture notes many accessible for the first time spark a passionate fire in this biography The authors follow Sontag as she abruptly ends an early first marriage establishes herself in Paris and embraces the open lifestyle she began as a teenager in Berkeley As a single mother she struggled with teaching at Columbia University and other colleges while aiming for a career as a novelist and essayist Eventually she made her own way in New York City after acquiring her one and only publisher Farrar Straus Giroux In her later years Sontag became a world figure a tastemaker dramatist and political activist who risked her life in besieged Sarajevo Love affairs with men and women troubled her Diagnosed with cancer she responded with determination and her experience with illness inspired some of her best writing This biography shows Sontag always craving more life at whatever cost and depicts her harrowing final decline even as she resisted terminal cancer Susan Sontag The Making of an Icon Revised and Updated presents in candid and stark relief a new assessment of a heroic and controversial figure Booksellers, Stationers and Fancy Goods Journal of Australia and New Zealand ,1927 The World

Review ,1927 Currents in Transatlantic History Steven G. Reinhardt,2017-06-07 Transatlantic historians are dedicated to analyzing the dynamic process of encounter interchange and creolization that was initiated when peoples on different sides of the Atlantic Basin first made contact and continues until the twenty first century The forty ninth annual Walter Prescott Webb Memorial Lecture Series Currents in Transatlantic Thought was organized to commemorate the fifteenth anniversary of the University of Texas at Arlington s doctoral program in transatlantic history Six alumni of the program were invited to return and present their ongoing research in this new approach to history that focuses on the complex process of interchange and adaptation that began when Africans Amerindians and Europeans first came into contact The essays stemming from those lectures cover a variety of topics grouped around three unifying themes encounters commodities and identities that illustrate the potentiality of transatlantic history The Publishers Weekly ,1925

Prairie Schooner Lowry Charles Wimberly,1927 The Image Daniel J. Boorstin,2012-05-09 Daniel J Boorstin s prophetic vision of an America inundated by its own illusions is an essential resource for any reader who wants to distinguish the manifold deceptions of our culture from its few enduring truths The book that best explains Trump s dominance may well have been published in 1962 In The Image A Guide to Pseudo Events in America the historian Daniel J Boorstin described the image as a medium a photograph a movie a representation of life laid out on pulp or screen that becomes soon enough a habit of mind The Atlantic Boorstin s book tells us how to see and listen and how to think about what we see and hear George

Will First published in 1962 this wonderfully provocative book introduced the notion of pseudo events events such as press conferences and presidential debates which are manufactured solely in order to be reported and the contemporary definition of celebrity as a person who is known for his well knownness
