War Office,1914 Royal Army Medical Corps Training, 1911 (Classic Reprint) Great Britain. War Office,2016-12-09 Excerpt from Royal Army Medical Corps Training 1911 It is probable that the best way to convey the required instruction under this head would be by giving brief sketches of various campaigns showing the different kinds of operations which may take place In connection with such sketches opportunities should be taken to explain the characteristics and methods of work of the different arms the meaning of technical military terms marching and fighting formations including simple time and space calculations and the essential points to be remembered in arranging movements so that a medical officer may be capable of fitting his unit into its allotted place on the line of march or elsewhere In connection with the above it should be explained how the medical service must be regarded as part of an organization which is maintained for the special purpose of fighting and how this special purpose must be kept constantly in view by officers of the in carrying out their work in the field About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Royal Army Medical Corps Training ,1911
