Designing Hollywood Christian Esquevin, 2023-08-29 Since the 1920s fashion has played a central role in Hollywood As the movie going population consisted largely of women studios made a concerted effort to attract a female audience by foregrounding fashion Magazines featured actresses like Jean Harlow and Joan Crawford bedecked in luxurious gowns selling their glamour as enthusiastically as the film itself Whereas actors and actresses previously wore their own clothing major studios hired costume designers and wardrobe staff to fabricate bespoke costumes for their film stars Designers from a variety of backgrounds including haute couture and art design were offered long term contracts to work on multiple movies Though their work typically went uncredited they were charged with creating an image for each star that would help define an actor both on and off screen The practice of working long term with a single studio disappeared when the studio system began unraveling in the 1950s By the 1970s studios had disbanded their wardrobe departments and auctioned off their costumes and props In Designing Hollywood Studio Wardrobe in the Golden Age Christian Esquevin showcases the designers who dressed Hollywood's stars from the late 1910s through the 1960s and the unique symbiosis they developed with their studios in creating iconic looks Studio by studio Esquevin details the careers of designers like Vera West who worked on Universal productions such as Phantom of the Opera 1925 Dracula 1931 and Bride of Frankenstein 1931 William Travilla the talent behind Marilyn Monroe's dresses in Gentleman Prefer Blondes 1953 and The Seven Year Itch 1955 and Walter Plunkett the Oscar winning designer for film classics like Gone with the Wind 1939 and An American in Paris 1951 Featuring black and white photographs of leading ladies in their iconic looks as well as captivating original color sketches Designing Hollywood takes the reader on a journey from drawing board to silver screen Scene, Channel 2 and 17, 1981

Prince William Penny Junor, 2021-11-15 The first definitive in depth portrait of the man who will be king of England and the story of his relationship with the woman who will be his queen His face is recognized the world over his story is well known But what is Prince William really like As Diana's eldest son he was her confidant While the tabloids eagerly lapped up the lurid details of his parents divorce William lived painfully through it suffering the embarrassment the humiliation and divided loyalties He watched his father denounced on prime time television he met the lovers And when he was just fifteen his beautiful loving mother was suddenly shocking snatched from his life forever The nation lost its princess and its grief threatened the very future of the monarchy What was almost forgotten in the clamor was that two small boys had lost their mother His childhood was a recipe for disaster yet as he approaches his thirtieth birthday William is as well balanced and sane a man as you could ever hope to meet He has an utter determination to do the right thing and to serve his country as his grandmother has so successfully done for the last sixty years Who stopped him from going off the rails turning his back on his duty and wanting nothing to do with the press the people he blamed for his mother's death Where did the qualities that have so entranced the world and his new bride Catherine come from In the last thirty years Penny Junor has written extensively about his parents and the extended family into which he was born With the trust built up over that time she has been able to get closer to the answers than ever before Archive UCLA Film and Television Archive, 1995

the palace gates was because Diana herself was the source Drawing upon these confidences as well as on conversations with countless people who knew Diana and with Diana herself in the final years of her life Lady Colin Campbell combines true insight with true compassion to bring us the most intimate and revealing portrait of the Princess of Wales that we will ever have
