mother We couldn't face the disapproval Sue Johnston always seemed to be disappointing her mother As a girl she never stayed clean and tidy like her cousins As she grew older she spent all her piano lesson money on drinks for her mates down the pub and when she discovered The Cavern she was never at home The final straw was when Sue left her steady job at a St Helen's factory to try her hand at that unsteadyest of jobs acting Yet when Sue was bringing up her own child alone her mother was always there to help And playing her much loved characters Sheila Grant in Waking the Dead and Barbara in The Royle Family although her mum wouldn't say she was proud as such she certainly seemed to approve And in her mother's final months it was Sue she needed by her side The relationship with your mother is perhaps the most precious and fraught of any woman's life When she began writing Sue set out to record all the big things and all the small things Everything I wanted to tell my mother but felt I never could The result is a warm poignant and often very funny memoir by one of Britain's favourite actresses
