Biblical Interpretation Using Archeological Evidence, 1900-1930 Mark Elliott, 2002 Since the beginning of the twentieth century conservative scholars claimed archaeology had validated the biblical record This book explores how traditional scholars seized upon archaeology to advocate biblical truth It examines the conflict between critical theories of biblical interpretation and traditional methods It delineates the tension between scholarship and the business of theology in the process of evaluation of the archaeological evidence at the beginning of the twentieth century Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions: 1700-Present Scott Mandelbrote, Jitse van der Meer, 2009-01-31 The four companion volumes of Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions contribute to a contextual evaluation of the mutual influences between scriptural exegesis and hermeneutics on the one hand and practices or techniques of interpretation in natural philosophy and the natural sciences on the other We seek to raise the low profile this theme has had both in the history of science and in the history of biblical interpretation Furthermore questions about the interpretation of scripture continue to be provoked by current theological reflection on scientific theories We also seek to provide a historical context for renewed reflection on the role of the hermeneutics of scripture in the development of theological doctrines that interact with the natural sciences Contributors are J Matthew Ashley Robert E Brown Elizabeth Chmielewski Edward B Davis Henri Wijnandus de Kniiff Marwa Elshakry Richard England Menachem Fisch George Harinck Bernhard Kleeberg Scott Mandelbrote G Blair Nelson Alexei V Nesteruk Jitse M van der Meer Rob P W Visser and William Yarchin Oberlin Alumni Magazine, 1909 Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions: God, Scripture and the rise of modern science (1200-1700) Jitse M. van der Meer, Scott Mandelbrote, 2008 These volumes describe how the development of the different styles of interpretation found in reading scripture and nature have transformed ideas of both the written word and the created world The Problem of the Pentateuch Melvin Grove Kyle, 1920 Science and Religion in America, 1800-1860 Herbert Hovenkamp, 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of
