Pulps J. P. Telotte, 2019 What impact did the new art of film have on the development of another new art the emerging science fiction genre during the pre and early post World War II era Focusing on such popular pulp magazines as Amazing Stories Astounding Stories and Wonder Stories this book traces this early relationship between film and literature through four common features stories that involve film or the film industry film related advertising editorial matters and readers letters commenting on film and the magazines heralded cover and story illustrations By surveying these haunting traces of another medium in early science fiction discourse we can begin to see the key role that a cinematic mindedness played in this formative era and to expand the early history of science fiction as a cultural idea beyond the usual boundaries that have been staked out by its literary manifestations and the genre's historians
