explored Aimed primarily at those with an interest in Scottish literature this guide also responds to the need for students and teachers to have detailed discussions of individual authors and texts The volume looks at Scottish literature in six period sections Early Scottish Literature Eighteenth Century The Age of Scott Victorian and Edwardian The Twentieth Century Scottish Literary Renaissance and Scottish Literature since 1945 Each section begins with an overview of the period followed by several chapters examining exemplary authors and texts Each section finishes with an extensive discussion including suggestions as to how to further explore the rich and often neglected hinterlands of Scottish writing Extensive reading lists identify primary texts of the period as well as details of a wide range of additional authors Opening up neglected areas of study as well as responding to the burgeoning interest in novelists modern poets and dramatists this book serves as an invaluable guide to Scottish Literature

Beyond Identity Attila Dósa, 2009 In Beyond Identity thirteen of Scotland's best known poets reflect upon the theoretical practical and political considerations involved in the act of writing They furnish a unique guide to contemporary Scottish poetry discussing a range of issues that include nationhood education language religion landscape translation and identity John Burnside Robert Crawford Douglas Dunn Kathleen Jamie Edwin Morgan Kenneth White and others together with such noted experimentalists as Frank Kuppner Tom Leonard and Richard Price explore questions about the relationship between social economic and ecological realities and their poetic transformation These interviews are set within the altered political context that followed from the re establishment of a Scottish Parliament in 1999 and the potential of a renewed engagement with wider European culture Attila Dosa is Senior Lecturer at the Department of English at the University of Miskolc in northern Hungary
