Screening Space:

Screening Space Vivian Carol Sobchack, 1997 This text attempts to shape definitions of the American science fiction film studying the connection between the films and social preconceptions It covers many classic films and discusses their import seeking to rescue the genre from the neglect of film theorists The book should appeal to both film buff and fans of science fiction

Screen Interiors Pat Kirkham, Sarah A. Lichtman, 2021-03-11 Covering everything from Hollywood films to Soviet cinema London's queer spaces to spaceships horror architecture and action scenes Screen Interiors presents an array of innovative perspectives on film design Essays address questions related to interiors and objects in film and television from the early 1900s up until the present day Authors explore how interior film design can facilitate action and amplify tensions how rooms are employed as structural devices and how designed spaces can contribute to the construction of identities Case studies look at disjunctions between interior and exterior design and the inter relationship of production design and narrative With a lens on class sexuality and identity across a range of films including Twilight of a Woman's Soul 1913 The Servant 1963 Caravaggio 1986 and Passengers 2016 and illustrated with film stills throughout Screen Interiors showcases an array of methodological approaches for the study of film and design history

Cinema Off Screen Chenshu Zhou, 2021-07-06 At a time when what it means to watch movies keeps changing this book offers a case study that rethinks the institutional ideological and cultural role of film exhibition demonstrating that film exhibition can produce meaning in itself apart from the films being shown Cinema Off Screen advances the idea that cinema takes place off screen as much as on screen by exploring film exhibition in China from the founding of the People's Republic in 1949 to the end of the Cold War in the early 1990s Drawing on original archival research interviews and audience recollections Cinema Off Screen decenters the filmic text and offers a study of institutional operations and lived experiences Chenshu Zhou details how the screening space media technology and the human body mediate encounters with cinema in ways that have not been fully recognized opening new conceptual avenues for rethinking the ever changing institution of cinema

Image and Territory Jennifer Burwell, Monique Tschofen, 2007 In a culture that often understands formal experimentation or theoretical argument to be antithetical to pleasure Atom Egoyan has nevertheless consistently appealed to wide audiences around the world If films like The Adjuster Calendar Exotica and The Sweet Hereafter have ensured him international cult status as one of the most revered of all contemporary directors Egoyan's forays into installation art and opera have provided evidence of his versatility and confirmed his talents Throughout his career Atom Egoyan has shown himself to possess the rarest kind of singularity As Jonathan Romney puts it Egoyan's preoccupations and tropes have been so consistent that he's practically created his own genre³ 1995:8 Hrag Vartanian adds 2Egoyanesque has become a word to film aficionados commonly understood to mean a cinematic moment that examines sexuality technology and alienation in the modern world³ 2004 For this singularity Egoyan is widely hailed as a true auteur someone carrying on the legacy of the European art house traditions of Bergman Godard and Truffaut Certainly his work bears a most recognizable signature there is no confusing an Egoyan work with anyone else's Like his art house predecessors Egoyan clearly intends that his work be as Dudley Andrew puts it 2read rather than consumed 3 that is viewed meditatively reflected upon and discussed 2000 24 And indeed in this world in which filmmaking has become commonplace where as Egoyan has said 2what used to be a rarified activity is now available to anyone with a digital camera and a computer3 2001b 18 he intends through much of his work to recall an earlier image culture in which artists had an ability to produce something that gained its power precisely through its rarity Societies in Space Gary Westfahl, 2025-01-21 Science fiction films and television programs about space travel have undergone a significant transformation since their inception In contrast to the early depictions of small spaceship crews on exploratory missions recent film and television portrayals depict much larger societies in space as well as the obstacles that arise with them This collection of essays examines many aspects of making space travel films from the process of screenwriting to the impact of Greek myth on modern film with illuminating commentary on contemporary problems including class distinction racism and sexism Contributors to this volume including several extensively published scholars and science fiction writers analyze a wide variety of relevant science fiction films and television programs ranging from Star Trek Silent Running the Alien films and Japanese anime to more recent works like Battlestar Galactica Avatar Elysium The Martian Passengers and Ad Astra

Cinema and the immersive experience industry Sarah Atkinson, Helen W. Kennedy, 2022-12-06 This book presents a comprehensive history and analysis of Secret Cinema the leading producer of large scale immersive experiences in the UK It examines how the company has evolved over twelve years from an experimental and artisanal organisation to a global leader in the field The book focuses on the UK in late 2019 a point at which the immersive sector had grown significantly through its increasing contribution to GDP and its widespread recognition as a legitimate cultural offering It captures an organisation and a sector transitioning from marginal and subcultural roots to a commodifiable and commercial form now with recognisable professional roles and practices which has contributed to the establishment of an immersive experience industry of national importance and global reach Manufacturers Record, 1925 Photoferroelectrics Vladimir M.

Fridkin, 2012-12-06 Since Valasek's discovery of the ferroelectric properties of Rochelle salt nearly 60 years ago ferroelectricity has been regarded as one of the traditional branches of dielectric physics. It has had important applications in lattice dynamics, quantum electronics and nonlinear optics. The study of electron processes in ferroelectrics was begun with VUL's investigations of the ferroelectric properties of barium titanate. Intrinsic and extrinsic optical absorption band structure, conductivity and photoconductivity, carrier mobility and transport mechanisms were examined in this compound and in other perovskite ferroelectric semiconductors. An important discovery was that of the highly photosensitive photoconducting ferroelectrics of type AVB_{1-x}VI_x, e.g. SbSI, by MERZ et al. in 1962. A large number of ferroelectric semiconductors, some photosensitive, some not, are now known, including broad band materials e.g. lithium niobate, lithium tantalate, barium and strontium niobate, and type A_{1-x}B_xI₃ compounds. BI and narrow band semiconductors e.g. type A_{1-x}IVB_x compounds. A series of improper ferroelectric semiconductors and photosensitive ferroelastics have been discovered, of which Sb_{0.9}I_{0.1} is an example. Owing to the uncertainty of their band structure, the difficulty in determining the nature of the levels, the complexity of alloying and their generally low mobility values, ferroelectrics are rarely of interest, regarded as nonlinear semiconductors. The most fruitful approach has been the study of the influence of electrons, especially nonequilibrium electrons and electron excitations, on phase transitions and ferroelectric properties. A large group of phenomena have recently been discovered and investigated.

Live Cinema Sarah Atkinson, Helen W. Kennedy, 2017-12-28 Live Cinema is a term used to capture a diverse range of experiences that incorporate a live element in relation to a film's exhibition. The live augmentation of cinema screenings is not a new phenomenon; indeed, this tendency is present throughout the entire history of cinema in the form of live musical accompaniments to silent screenings, showmanship practices and cult film audience behaviours. The contemporary revival of experiential cinema captured within this volume presents instances where the live transcends the mediated and escapes beyond the boundaries of the auditorium. Our contributors investigate film exhibition practices that include synchronous live performance, site-specific screenings, technological intervention, social media engagement and all manner of simultaneous interactive moments including singing, dancing, eating and drinking. These investigations reveal new cultures of reception and practice, new experiential aesthetics and emergent economies of engagement. This collection brings together fifteen contributions that together trace the emergence of a vivid new area of study. Drawing on rich, diverse and interdisciplinary fields of enquiry, this volume encapsulates a broad range of innovative methodological approaches, offers new conceptual frameworks and new critical vocabularies through which to describe and analyse the emergent phenomena of Live Cinema.

After Francis Bacon Nicholas Chare, 2017-07-05 Like an analyst listening to a patient, this study attends not just to what is said in David Sylvester's interviews with Francis Bacon but also crucially to what is left unspoken, to revealing interruptions and caesuras. Through interpreting these silences, After Francis Bacon breaks with stereotypical ideas about the artist's work and provides new readings and avenues of research. After

Francis Bacon is the first book to give extended consideration to the way the reception of Bacon's art including Gilles Deleuze's influential text on the artist has been shaped by the Sylvester interviews and to move beyond the limiting effects of the interviews providing fresh interpretations Nicholas Chare draws upon recent developments in psychoanalysis and forensic psychology to present innovative readings of Bacon's work primarily based on the themes of sadomasochism and multi sensory perception Through bringing Bacon's paintings into dialogue with Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness and the film Alien he also provides original insights into the ethical relevance the artist's works have for today This study addresses the complexities of the artist's practice particularly in relation to sexuality and synaesthesia and additionally forms a crucial intervention within current debates about creative writing in art history
