Christ-Centered Biblical Counseling James MacDonald, Bob Kelle, Stephen Viars, 2013-03-01 Christ Centered Biblical Counseling is a comprehensive guide that will equip God's people to use biblical truth to change lives More than that this book will increase people's confidence in the sufficiency and relevancy of God's Word to address real life issues in a multitude of counseling situations Readers of this book will Understand clearly why they should embrace biblical counseling Be encouraged to trust God's Word to provide rich insight for living in the midst of even the most difficult challenges Enjoy the relevant pastoral and theological teaching they have come to appreciate from such noted authors as James MacDonald John Piper Mark Dever and Elyse Fitzpatrick The 28 chapters blend theological wisdom and practical expertise The first half of the book emphasizes a practical theology of biblical counseling the second half highlights a practical methodology of biblical counseling Though accessible to all Christians the book will especially appeal to pastors and church leaders counseling practitioners students and educators

Basic Principles of Biblical Counseling Larry Crabb, Lawrence J. Crabb, 1975 With compassion and urgency this book makes a plea for parishioners to engage in grappling soul to soul with troubled lives It looks toward a method of counseling which neither overlooks sin nor is reduced to a simplistic model of confrontation and exhortation

A Theology of Christian Counseling Jay E. Adams, 2010-08-10 Connecting sound biblical doctrine to the practice of effective counseling Jay E Adams vocal advocate of a strictly biblical approach to counseling and author of the highly influential book Competent to Counsel firmly believes that the Bible itself provides all the principles needed for understanding and engaging in holistic counseling But in order to bring the practice of counseling whether by professional therapists or by the church under biblical guidance we first have to deepen our understanding of Scripture A Theology of Christian Counseling is the connection between solid theology the study of God and its practical application Each of its sections are devoted to increasing our understanding of counseling's potential by looking at it through the lens of doctrines such as Prayer and the doctrine of God Human Sin and the doctrine of Man Redemption and the doctrine of Salvation Forgiveness and the doctrine of Sanctification No counseling system that is based on some other foundation can begin to offer what Christian counseling offers No matter what the problem is no matter how greatly sin has abounded the Christian counselor's stance is struck by the far more abounding nature of the grace of Jesus Christ in redemption. What a difference this makes in counseling! Jay E. Adams. With this book you'll gain insight into the rich theological framework that supports and directs your approach to how you help people change. Transformative Encounters David W. Appleby, George Ohlschlager, 2013-07-12. What would it mean for Christian counseling and pastoral care to take seriously the idea that God intervenes in the world? In this volume more than twenty of the best pastoral counselors, clinicians, and counselor educators introduce us to the models that they use to integrate the Scriptures and the work of the Holy Spirit into their daily practice. How to Help People Change Jay E. Adams, 1986. Change is the essential goal of the counseling process as the author reminds us. This book provides us with an explanation of the idea that substantial change requires the alteration of the heart. A Christian Approach to Counseling and Psychotherapy Siang-Yang Tan, 2022-07-19. What does a Christian approach to counseling and psychotherapy involve? The 2021 Fuller Integration Symposium Lectures by Dr. Siang Yang Tan published in this book cover this topic with the overall title of A Christian Approach to Counseling and Psychotherapy: Christ-Centered, Biblically Based, and Spirit-Filled. The three lectures in three chapters are on 1. A Christian Perspective on Human Nature and Effective Counseling and Psychotherapy, 2. Implicit and Explicit Integration in Christian Counseling and Psychotherapy: Christian Faith in Clinical Practice, and 3. The Role of the Holy Spirit in Christian Counseling and Psychotherapy. The New Christian Counselor Ron Hawkins, Tim Clinton, 2015-10-01. Seasoned counselors and professors Ron Hawkins and Tim Clinton offer a comprehensive guide that empowers Christian counselors by clarifying their task to help people take possession of their souls through the power of the Spirit under the authority of the Word in a supportive community of accountability that they may be like Christ. The authors address head-on today's enticing new imitations of true peace and tantalizing opportunities for people in pain to anesthetize themselves. But they also highlight the foundation of hope: God loves, he empowers, and he refuses to abandon his passion for connection with his children. Case studies illustrate how to help people take possession of the thinking self, the feeling self, the decision-making self, the physical self, and the relational self. This comprehensive plan for effective intervention is perfect for lay counselors, students, and professionals looking for ways to integrate their faith and practice. Negotiating a Presence-Centred Christian Counselling Simon Shui-Man Kwan, 2016-04-26. How Christian is Christian counselling? In what ways should one's counselling practice be conducted in order to fulfil one's role as a Christian counsellor? Is there a counselling practice that truly penetrates into the secular approaches while remaining faithful to the Christian traditions of healing? What are the theological roots of secular counselling? How may secular counselling both reinforce and challenge the Christian faith? In answering these questions, this book engages readers to navigate between two frames of reference: one Eastern/secular/social/scientific and modern, the other Western/Christian/theological and traditional. At levels of both theory and practice, this book undertakes to integrate, synthesize, hybridize, revise, dichotomize, and antagonize the two. It proposes a revised presence centred counselling approach which may serve as a perspective that helps us to see things in more depth as we shuttle back and forth between the two frames This book thus negotiates a revised presence centred form of counselling that is theologically grounded social scientifically informed and cross culturally sensitive As the author s counselling practice proceeds mainly in societies where Chinese is the majority the cross cultural examinations and proposals offered in this book have been bred in a space where Chinese culture meets the Christian Protestantism in particular West This book is an outgrowth of the author s experience teaching Christian counselling courses for 17 years and his 30 year clinical practice experience in places where East meets West namely Hong Kong and South China Guangdong Province Christian and Faith-based Counseling for Brain Injury Deana Adams,2022-11-24 Christian and Faith based Counseling for Brain Injury is the first book of its kind to offer faith based therapy to address the emotional cognitive and mental health needs of individuals who have suffered a traumatic brain injury TBI A highly researched piece of work the book puts forth an innovative and effective method for not only addressing the challenges of a life changing injury but also for creating a sense of purpose Through the nuances of faith based counselling this book focuses on the spiritual and existential aspects of understanding the diagnosis and creating a purpose post injury It examines how brain injury can affect an individual by exploring the deficits of brain injury the impact of brain injury and the challenges specific to damage to certain brain lobes It also describes the mental health issues such as depression anxiety grief anger and posttraumatic stress that can affect both the survivor and their family members Offering targeted counseling techniques and adaptive strategies it shows how faith based counselors can effectively treat brain injury This book is valuable reading for all individuals invested in providing support to the TBI community It is aimed at counselors lay counselors healthcare professionals social workers psychotherapists seminary students and upper level graduate students It will further be of use to for clinicians working in the outpatient level of care and private practice settings The Challenges of Integrating Religion and Spirituality into Psychotherapy Francis A. Martin,2024-04-23 This book examines personal and professional understandings of religion in psychotherapy and advocates for integrity competency and cultural pluralism in clinical practice A major feature of this book is that it confirms the massive proliferation of religion oriented approaches to counseling and therapy in recent years It attributes this rise to opportunism and exaggerated individualism among therapists and to the frequent failures of professional associations clinical preparation programs and other influences In response to these influences it identifies the need for guiding principles for integrating religion into therapy discusses the religious issues that clients bring to therapy and advocates for major changes in clinical practice with emphasis on integrity and competence Building on a large volume of research and using evidence based conclusions it clarifies how these two major features of contemporary life can be integrated with integrity and competence The author maintains that religion should be a feature of the practice of counseling and therapy so long as it addresses the clinically relevant needs of clients However it also explores how the religion of counselors and therapists often expresses the needs of counselors and therapists instead of addressing the needs of their clients In the context of these questions and discussion of contentious challenges this book provides guidelines for relating religion with clinical practice and recommends needed actions by clinical preparation programs professional associations individual therapists state legislatures licensing boards social service agencies and corporations All of this stands on the conspicuous need for professional accountability in the delivery of mental health care
