"Union is strength" means unity is the biggest power that can defeat or face any kind of situation or problem existed in this world. We all have heard a lot of stories about strength of union in our childhood, one of them was about a farmer who had four sons but they always fought against each other. Some day their father gave a stick to them and ordered to break it, every one quickly broken it then father asked them to collect all the sticks and bind it with rope. Again he asked his all sons to break it. Every one tried but couldn't succeed. Then their father made them realized the power of unity.

Above was the best and suitable example of this phrase of "Union is strength". Other examples can be seen by us in our nature like uncounted single drops are used to make a
