bride and she doesn't realize the groom-to-be didn't post it. Worse the day she arrives at her destination she learns he doesn't even want to get married. Having nowhere else to go she convinces him to give her a chance to prove having a woman cook and clean for him will be the best thing that ever happened to him. Abe Thomas reluctantly agrees to take Phoebe in though he doubts they will make a good match. They're much too different. While she sees the best in things he knows the world is much darker than she can ever imagine. No woman in her right mind would be his convenient wife. He's sure when the stagecoach comes back to town she'll be the first one on it. After all two people so completely different can't make a good match can they?

The Earl's Wallflower Bride Ruth Ann Nordin, 2016-07-17 Helena, Melissa and Chloe are arranging marriages but not all will go smoothly on the way to a happily ever after. Warren Beaufort, the Earl of Steinbeck, prides himself on having the best of the best. From his furnishings in his townhouse to his clothes he chooses everything with the intention of impressing others. And more than that he has amassed a fortune that is the envy of many in London. One thing he lacks however is an heir. In order to get the heir he'll need a wife. Lady Iris, the Duke of Hartwell's daughter, has money but she lacks both grace and looks. One thing she does have however is the good sense to know a gentleman like Warren is all wrong for her, which is why she's horrified to learn she's been matched with him for marriage. But the Duchess of Ashbourne and her friends assure her that she and Warren have so much in common they are an ideal match. Having no way out of the marriage her father has arranged for her she has no choice but to marry Warren. While she might have to give him the heir she will never under any circumstance give him something far more precious: her heart.

The Duke's Secluded Bride (a gothic Regency Romance) Ruth Ann Nordin, 2020-04-27 Most gentlemen wait to get married because they want time to enjoy being a bachelor before taking on the responsibilities of a married gentleman. Baldwin Darby, the Duke of Edmondstone, isn't one of them. The life of a rogue never appealed to him. He's wanted nothing more than to fall in love and live a quiet and uneventful life ever since he could remember. It wasn't by choice that he hasn't married yet. He's just not very comfortable around ladies which makes the marriage market difficult for him. So when his acquaintance mentions a sister at his country estate who is ready for marriage he jumps at the chance for an arranged marriage. He's been told she is extremely shy and that it takes her time to open up around strangers so he might find her a bit strange when he initially meets her. But this doesn't bother him. He's a patient gentleman and can give her time to get used to him. What he doesn't count on however is just how strange everything is when he gets to the country estate. She refuses to leave her section of the manor she has to go to bed before it's dark and she has an unusual fascination for monsters. Despite all of that she is beautiful and possesses a sweet temperament. He wishes he could figure out a way to help her embrace a normal life. If he keeps pressing for her to have a normal life he just might get his wish. But nothing will prepare him for the truth. This is loosely based off the Rapunzel fairy tale.
