Shamanism And The Drug Propaganda:

Shamanism and the Drug Propaganda Dan Russell, 1998 Shamanism and the Drug Propaganda is a popularly written college level introduction to ancient history and the Greek classics The text is fully annotated and illuminated by 200 genuine pharmaco shamanic images from the ancient world Since it is popularly written and very heavily illustrated with the remarkable overtly pharmaco shamanic art of the ancient world it reads like a movie But a movie with profound psychological and political relevance for the contemporary world since it uses the words and pictures of our ancestors to address contemporary issues In this sense it compares to The Chalice and the Blade and Food of the Gods two recent bestsellers of similar intent As such the book is a unique tool for exciting undergraduates about the contemporary relevance of ancient history and the Greek classics This was the intent of Jane Ellen Harrison in her Prolegomena and Epilegomena to the Study of Greek Religion Harrison was the most influential classicist of the twentieth century and not coincidentally the most influential feminist historian of the century as well A major feature of Shamanism and the Drug Propaganda in 4 of its 17 chapters is its summary of Harrison s seminal thesis in her own words Harrison was concerned with the historical and psychological transition from the originary matriarchal conscious of tribal culture to the warrior oriented patriarchal consciousness of industrial culture She understood this transition to be central to the process of industrial enslavement That enslavement necessarily demonized the power rites the rites de passage as she called them of tribal cultures That is Harrison pointed to the tribal the matriarchal pre industrial roots of Classical patriarchal industrial Greek culture She was therefore concerned with originary tribal Greek sacramentalism Herbal magic real pharmaco shamanism is at the core of all matriarchal cultures The Goddess does not separate from her herbal magic from her invention of medicine The central sacrament of all Paleolithic Neolithic and Bronze Age cultures known is an inebriative herb a plant totem which became metaphoric of the communal epiphany These herbs herbal concoctions and herbal metaphors are at the heart of all mythologies They include such familiar images as the Burning Bush the Tree of Life the Cross the Golden Bough the Forbidden Fruit the Blood of Christ the Blood of Dionysos the Holy Grail or rather its contents the Chalice Kalyx flower cup the Golden Flower Chrysanthemon Ambrosia Ambrotos immortal Nectar Nektar overcomes death the Sacred Lotus the Golden Apples the Mystic Mandrake the Mystic Rose the Divine Mushroom teonanacatl the Divine Water Lily Soma Ayahuasca Vine of the Soul Kava Iboga Mama Coca and Peyote Woman They are the archetypal the emotionally the instantaneously understood symbols at the center of the drug propaganda A sexually attractive man or woman is an archetypal image the basis of most advertising A loaf of bread is an archetypal image The emotional impact of the sacramental herbal images or rather the historical confusion of their natural function is central to the successful manipulation of mass emotion and individual self image That is contemporary politics has an unconscious an evolutionary element that involves the industrial manipulation of instinct That manipulation can only be understood by contemplating what elements of our evolutionary inheritance contemporary inquisitors want forgotten Shamanism and the Drug Propaganda Dan Russell,1995-12-01 Shamanism and the Drug Propaganda Dan Russell,1994 Phenomenal World Joan D'Arc,2000-11 For centuries mankind has been exploring the nature of reality The materialistic scientific worldview would have us believe that physically measurable phenomena are all that exist Yet the answers to the key of reality go far beyond this mindset This book explores the clues we have about the nature of reality especially those aspects that cannot yet be proven If we can understand the most baffling aspects of reality then we will move closer toward understanding its ultimate cause and nature The Political Economy of Narcotics Julia Buxton,2013-07-04 This book explores the origins history and organisation of the international system of narcotic drug control with a specific focus on heroin cannabis and cocaine It argues that the century long quest to eliminate the production trade in and use of narcotic drugs has been a profound failure The statistics produced by the international and domestic narcotic drug control agencies point to a sustained expansion of the drug trade despite the imposition of harsh criminal sanctions against those engaged as producers traffickers or consumers in the narcotic drugs market The roots of this major international policy failure are traced back to the outdated ideology of prohibition which is shown to be counterproductive utopian and a fundamentally inadequate basis for narcotic drug policy in the twenty first century Prohibition championed by many US policy makers has left the international community poorly positioned to confront those changes to the drug trade and drug markets that have resulted from globalisation Moreover prohibition based approaches are causing more harm than good as is demonstrated through reference to issues such as HIV AIDS the environment conflict development and social justice As the drug control system approaches its centenary there are signs that the global consensus on narcotic drug prohibition is fracturing Some European and South American states are pushing for a new approach based on regulation decriminalisation and harm reduction But those seeking to revise prohibition strategies faces entrenched resistance primarily by the U S This important text argues that successive American governments have pursued a contradictory approach acting decisively against the narcotic drug trade at home and abroad while at the same time working with drug traffickers and producer states when it is in America s strategic interest As a result US policy approaches emerge as a decisive factor in accounting for the failure of prohibition
