Sacred Sea Peter Thomson, 2007-08-29 Siberia's Lake Baikal is one of nature's most magnificent creations the largest and deepest body of fresh water in the world And yet it is nearly unknown outside of Russia In Sacred Sea the first major journalistic examination of Baikal in English veteran environmental writer Peter Thomson and his younger brother undertake a kind of pilgrimage journeying 25 000 miles by land and sea to reach this extraordinary lake At Baikal they find a place of sublime beauty deep history and immense natural power But they also find ominous signs that this perfect ecosystem containing one fifth of earth's fresh water and said to possess a mythical ability to cleanse itself could yet succumb to the even more powerful forces of human hubris carelessness and ignorance Ultimately they help us see that despite its isolation Baikal is connected to everything else on Earth and that it will need the love and devotion of people around the world to protect it Inked: Tattoos and Body Art around the World Margo DeMello,2014-05-30 In recent decades tattoos have gone from being a subculture curiosity in Western culture to mainstream and commonplace This two volume set provides broad coverage of tattooing and body art in the United States today as well as around the world and throughout human history In the 1960s tattooing was illegal in many parts of the United States Today tattooing is fully ingrained in mainstream culture and is estimated to be a multi billion dollar industry This exhaustive work contains approximately 400 entries on tattooing providing historical information that enables readers to fully understand the methods employed the meanings of and the motivations behind tattooing one of the most ancient ways humans mark themselves The encyclopedia covers all important aspects of the topic of tattooing the major types of tattooing the cultural groups associated with tattooing the regions of the world where tattooing has been performed the origins of modern tattooing in prehistory and the meaning of each society's use of tattoos Major historical and contemporary figures associated with tattooing including tattooists tattooed people and tattoo promoters receive due attention for their contributions The entries and sidebars also address the sociological movements involved with tattooing the organizations the media dedicated to tattooing such as television shows movies magazines websites and books and the popular conventions carnivals and fairs that have showcased tattooing The World in 2050 Laurence C. Smith,2011-10-25 A compelling portrait of the future and vividly relates the big challenges facing the world now Jared Diamond New York Times bestselling author of Collapse and Guns Germs and Steel The world's population is exploding wild species are vanishing and our environment is degrading What kind of world are we leaving for our children and grandchildren Just who will flourish and who will fail in our evolving world Combining the lessons of geography and history with state of the art model projections and analytical data Guggenheim fellow Laurence C Smith predicts how the eight nations of the Arctic Rim including the United States will become increasingly powerful while the nations around the equator struggle for survival Like Bjorn Lomborg's The Skeptical Environmentalist The World in 2050 is as credible as it is controversial projecting the looming benefits as well as the problems of climate change Language Empires in Comparative Perspective Christel Stolz,2015-03-10 The notion of empire is associated with economic and political mechanisms of dominance For the last decades however there has been a lively debate concerning the question whether this concept can be transferred to the field of linguistics specifically to research on situations of language spread on the one hand and concomitant marginalization of minority languages on the other The authors who contributed to this volume concur as to the applicability of the notion of empire to language related issues They address the processes potential merits and drawbacks of language spread as well as the marginalization of minority languages language endangerment and revitalization contact induced language change the emergence of mixed languages and identity issues An emphasis is on the dominance of non Western languages such as Arabic Chinese and particularly Russian The studies demonstrate that the emergence spread and decline of language empires is a promising area of research particularly from a comparative perspective The New North Laurence Smith,2011-03-24 The New North is a book that turns the world literally upside down Analysing four key megatrends population growth and migration natural resource demand climate change and globalisation UCLA professor Larry Smith projects a world that by mid century will have shifted its political and economic axes radically to the north The beneficiaries of this new order based on a bonanza of oil natural gas minerals and plentiful water will be the Arctic regions of Russia Alaska and Canada and Scandinavia Meanwhile countries closer to the equator will face water shortages aging populations crowded megacities and coastal flooding Smith draws on geography economics history earth and climate science but what makes his arguments so compelling is that he has spent many months exploring the region talking to people in once inaccessible Arctic towns noting their economies politics and stories The Siberian Curse Fiona Hill,Clifford G.
