Hofmann,2016-07-25 U S Navy Supply Corps Ensign Ross Hofmann had no idea what was in store for him when he arrived at Cavite Naval Base in October 1941 Two months later Japanese forces struck the Philippines destroying the base and forcing U S personnel to retreat to Bataan There Hofmann joined a makeshift unit of Army Air Corps ground personnel U S Marines U S sailors U S Naval ground battalions and Filipinos to fight a Japanese force that landed nearby In March 1942 with the fall of Bataan imminent he traveled to Cebu to run supplies through the blockade of Bataan and Corregidor Soon after his arrival the Japanese landed on Cebu forcing the Americans to retreat again Hiking through jungles and crossing dangerous waters in barely seaworthy vessels Hofmann avoided capture and reached an American base in Mindanao He received orders to establish a seaplane base on Lake Lanao As Japanese troops landed nearby two seaplanes returning from Corregidor stopped to refuel one of them hitting a submerged rock on take off In a harrowing race against the enemy advance Hofmann and others worked feverishly to fix the plane and escape before the Japanese converged on Lake Lanao This memoir recounts Hofmann s experiences in vivid detail Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Argonaut ,1921 Women at Work in World Wars I and II Paul Chrystal,2024-04-04 This book is about women in World Wars I II women working in factories and on farms or toiling perilously in field stations just behind the front lines in inhospitable hospitals and convalescent homes It is therefore about the prodigious contribution women made to the war efforts from 1914 1918 and 1939 1945 standing in for the men who had left their places of work for the various theatres of war from Greece and Italy to Belgium from Mesopotamia to France Their tasks were many and various keeping the troops supplied with shells bullets and explosives keeping the nation from starving to death keeping hundreds of thousands of wounded troops alive so that they might fight another day The book is in short the uplifting but sometimes tragic story of the many women who stepped up to work in the factories hospitals field stations in transport and in civil defense on the farms and shipyards or signed up to the various military and civil services during the two world wars of the 20th century wars to end all wars The book is different because it deals with women s labour in both world wars and in all occupations it covers the discrimination and prejudice they faced from men at every level military and civilian even when they had demonstrated beyond doubt that they were quick learners industrious and proficient and usually as good as any man The book raises the embarrassing question why it has taken so long for the prodigious contribution women made in both wars to be recognized and why some women workers still remain air brushed from our military history after more than a century As it turned out little was beyond their capabilities and it is reasonable to suppose that without their huge efforts and accomplishments both wars might have turned out very differently for us The Sabbath Recorder ,1912
