Taheri, James F. Orr, 1997-12 Using the theme of a turtle being adopted by a family of rabbits this book's intent is to help explain to an adopted child that being adopted does not either limit his or her potential or lessen his or her responsibilities as a person Look Who's Cooking Jennifer Rachel Dutch, 2018-08-03 Home cooking is a multibillion dollar industry that includes cookbooks kitchen gadgets high end appliances specialty ingredients and more Cooking themed programming flourishes on television inspiring a wide array of celebrity chef branded goods even as self described foodies seek authenticity by pickling preserving and canning foods in their own home kitchens Despite this claims that no one has time to cook anymore are common lamenting the slow extinction of traditional American home cooking in the twenty first century In Look Who's Cooking The Rhetoric of American Home Cooking Traditions in the Twenty First Century author Jennifer Rachel Dutch explores the death of home cooking narrative revealing how modern changes transformed cooking at home from an odious chore into a concept imbued with deep meanings associated with home family and community Drawing on a wide array of texts cookbooks advertising YouTube videos and more Dutch analyzes the many manifestations of traditional cooking in America today She argues that what is missing from the discourse around home cooking is an understanding of skills and recipes as a form of folklore Dutch's research reveals that home cooking is a powerful vessel that Americans fill with meaning because it represents both the continuity of the past and adaptability to the present Home cooking is about much more than what is for dinner it's about forging a connection to the past displaying the self in the present and leaving a lasting legacy for the future Look Who's Watching, Revised Edition Fen Osler Hampson, Eric Jardine, 2017-11-08 The Internet ecosystem is held together by a surprisingly intangible glue trust To meet its full potential users need to trust that the Internet works reliably and efficiently when providing them with the information they are seeking while also being secure private and safe When trust in the Internet wanes the network's stock of digital social capital falls and users begin to alter their online behaviour These often subtle changes in behaviour tend to be collectively highly maladaptive hindering the economic developmental and innovative potential of the globe spanning network of networks Look

Who's Watching Surveillance Treachery and Trust Online confirms in vivid detail that the trust placed by users in the Internet is increasingly misplaced Edward Snowden's revelations that the United States National Security Agency and other government agencies are spying on Internet users the proliferation of cybercrime and the growing commodification of user data and regulatory changes which threaten to fragment the system are all rapidly eroding the confidence users have in the Internet ecosystem Based on a combination of illustrative anecdotal evidence and analysis of new survey data Look Who's Watching clearly demonstrates why trust matters how it is being eroded and how with care and deliberate policy action the essential glue of the Internet can be restored
