Look Down On The Stars:

Carol Reed Peter William Evans, 2019-01-04 Carol Reed is one of the truly outstanding directors of British cinema and one whose work is long overdue for reconsideration This major study ranges over Reed's entire career combining observation of general trends and patterns with detailed analysis of twenty films both acknowledged masterpieces and lesser known works Evans avoids a simplistic auteurist approach placing the films in their autobiographical socio-political and cultural contexts and relating these to the analysis of Reed's art The critical approach combines psychoanalysis gender theory and the analysis of form Archival research is also relied on to clarify Reed's relations with his creative team financial backers and others Films examined include Bank Holiday A Girl Must Live Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol The Third Man Night Train to Munich The Way Ahead Outcast of the Islands Trapeze and Oliver Look Up at the Stars Katie Cotton, 2022-10-04 This stunningly illustrated and heartfelt book tells the story of a mother bear and her child who leave their house on an adventure in search of a star in a warm tale of love family and home Look up at the stars so high above me If I could just hold one how happy I'd be A parent and child go in search of a star journeying through dark woods across rough seas and through snow and ice to the top of Mount Digger Doo in order to reach their goal but what will happen when they find it out of reach This lyrical picture book celebrates adventure coming home love and the idea that sometimes what you are looking for is right under your nose A relaxing and mindful read that's perfect for any parent who is looking to soothe their child at bedtime This is a lovely gentle book with comforting rhymes fantastic illustrations and a fabulous go-getting mother figure Just Imagine

Deep Mediations Karen Redrobe, Jeff Scheible, 2021-03-09 The preoccupation with depth and its relevance to cinema and media studies For decades the concept of depth has been central to critical thinking in numerous humanities-based disciplines legitimizing certain modes of inquiry over others Deep Mediations examines why and how this is as scholars today navigate the legacy of depth models of thought and vision particularly in light of the surface turn and as these models impinge on the realms of cinema and media studies The collection's eighteen essays seek to understand the decisive but evolving fixation on depth by considering the term's use across a range of conversations as well as its status in relation to critical methodologies and the current mediascape Engaging contemporary debates about new computing technologies the environment history identity affect audio-visual culture and the limits and politics of human perception Deep Mediations is a timely interrogation of depth's ongoing importance within the humanities Contributors Laurel Ahnert Taylor Arnold U of Richmond Erika Balsom King's College London Brooke Belisle Stony Brook University Jinhee Choi King's College London Jennifer Fay Vanderbilt U Lisa Han UC Santa Barbara Jean Ma Stanford U Shaka McGlotten Purchase College SUNY Susanna Paasonen U of Turku Finland Jussi Parikka U of Southampton Alessandra Raengo Georgia State U Pooja Rangan Amherst College Katherine Rochester VIA Art Fund in Boston Karl Schoonover University of Warwick UK Jordan Schonig Michigan State U John Paul Stadler North Carolina State U Nicole Starosielski New York U Lauren Tilton U of Richmond

The Star Outside My Window Onjali Q. Raúf, 2021-01-19 From the award winning author of The Boy at the Back of the Class comes a middle grade novel about the power of hope to sustain even when tragedy strikes Ten year old Aniyah and her little brother Noah find themselves living in foster care after the sudden disappearance of their mum With her life in disarray Aniyah knows just one thing for sure her mum isn't gone forever Aniyah believes that the people with the brightest hearts never truly disappear They become stars When scientists discover a new star acting strangely Aniyah knows it's really her mum To make sure everyone else knows too she embarks on the adventure of a lifetime one that involves breaking into the Royal Observatory of London and meeting the biggest star in Hollywood This is an honest yet empathetic exploration of how people respond to difficult circumstances told through the innocent voice of a ten year old girl Reader's Theater--"Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" and "Star Light, Star Bright" Sharon Coan, 2014-03-01 This reader's theater script builds fluency through oral reading The creative script captures students' interest so they will want to practice and perform Included is a fluency lesson and approximate reading levels for the script roles cinemagoing in wartime Britain, 1939-45 Richard Farmer, 2016-06-24 In this groundbreaking book Richard Farmer provides a social and cultural history of cinemas and cinemagoing in Britain between 1939 and 1945 and explores the impact that the war had on the places in which British people watched films Movie-Made Appalachia John C. Inscoe, 2020-11-24 While Hollywood deserves its reputation for much maligned portrayals of southern highlanders on screen the film industry also deserves credit for a long standing tradition of more serious and meaningful depictions of Appalachia's people Surveying some two dozen films and the literary and historical sources from which they were adapted John C Inscoe argues that in the American imagination Appalachia has long represented far more than deprived and depraved hillbillies Rather the films he highlights serve as effective conduits into the region's past some grounded firmly in documented realities and life stories others only loosely so In either case they deserve more credit than they have received for creating sympathetic and often complex characters who interact within families households and communities amidst a wide array of historical contingencies They provide credible and informative narratives that respect the specifics of the times and places in which they are set Having used many of these movies as teaching tools in college classrooms Inscoe demonstrates the cumulative effect of analyzing them in terms of shared themes and topics to convey far more generous insights into Appalachia and its history than one would have expected to emerge from southern California's dream factory Stars Above, Earth Below Tyler
