Searching the Soul of the College and University in America Stephen J. Nelson,2023-10-30 This is a story of religious and democratic covenants and controversies in the foundations of the American nation and in the soul of its colleges and universities Its powers are religion and politics in America the creeds and convictions constituting the beliefs and theologies of citizens and religious people Critically overlapping and entangled democratic beliefs and convictions distinctly define the American body politic and are in the foundation of the nation and its colleges and universities In that story an unmistakable feature and idea is that the religion of the Republic in America is intertwined with and parallel to a symbiotic religion of the academy in its colleges and universities The nation and its colleges share the same space history and religious and democratic heralds and heroes Democratic and political theories and philosophies and competing and cooperating religious faiths and impulses have been reflected both the Republic and in battles waged about the essential nature of the American nation and its colleges and universities These traits constitute how America its public and its citizens in and outside the gates of the academy have wrestled with the aspirations and ideals that define civic duty the commons and the common good

Aesthetics as a Religious Factor in Eastern and Western Christianity William Peter van den Bercken,Jonathan Sutton,2005 This volume contains selected papers of a conference in 2004 at Utrecht University on aesthetics as a religious factor in Eastern and Western Christianity They discuss the role of aesthetics in the presentation and expression of Christian faith in Catholic and Orthodox tradition During its history Christianity has produced many works of art church architecture iconography painting music and literary texts And in Orthodoxy beauty has always been the main form of religious expression more than verbal presentation of Christian teaching which is embedded in the aesthetic context of liturgy In Christian theology beauty has often been seen as a form of divine revelation related to the mystery of incarnation The relation between aesthetics and religious belief has acquired new relevance in our secularised world Today the visible products of Catholic and Orthodox aesthetics are for many people the main means through which they come into contact with

Christianity and many people without affinity to religion are attracted by the beauty of Christian art inside and outside the church In modern religious studies the experience of beauty is recognised as a factor in explaining religious feelings The papers are divided in four sections 1 Comparative aspects of Orthodox and Catholic aesthetics 2 Religious aesthetics in Russian literary culture 3 Applied aesthetics in church art 4 Art theoretical ideological and religious philosophical aspects
