LOUVRE Michel Laclotte, 1982      Louvre, French and other European paintings (the). M. Laclotte, 1982      The Louvre, 1990      149 Paintings You Really Should See in Europe — France Julian Porter, 2013-10-16 This chapter from Julian Porter's essential companion to all the major European museums and galleries discusses some of the greatest paintings to be found in the museums and galleries of France. His passion for art began with the seven years he spent as a student tour guide in Europe. In this segment he visits Paris and discusses works by masters such as Delacroix, David, Renoir, Manet, Degas and many more. In the usually pretentious arena of art connoisseurs, Porter's voice stands out as fresh and original. He finds the best of the best which he describes with entertaining irreverence and spares you hours of sore feet and superfluous information.

French Paintings in The Metropolitan Museum of Art from the Early Eighteenth Century through the Revolution Katharine Baetjer, 2019-04-15 This publication catalogues The Met's remarkable collection of eighteenth-century French paintings in the context of the powerful institutions that governed the visual arts of the time: the Académie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture, the Académie de France à Rome and the Paris Salon. At the height of their authority during the eighteenth century, these institutions nurtured the talents of artists in all genres. The Met's collection encompasses stunning examples of work by leading artists of the period including Antoine Watteau, Mezzetin, Jean Siméon Chardin, The Silver Tureen, François Boucher, The Toilette of Venus, Joseph Siffred Duplessis, Benjamin Franklin, Jean Baptiste Greuze, Broken Eggs, Hubert Robert, the Bagatelle decorations, Jacques-Louis David, The Death of Socrates, the Van Blarenberghes, The Outer Port of Brest and François Gérard, Charles Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord. In the book's introduction, author Katharine Baetjer provides a history of the Académie, its establishment, principles and regulations, along with a discussion of the beginnings of public art discourse in France, taking us through the reforms unleashed by the Revolution. The consequent democratizing of the Salon brought about by radicals under the leadership of Jacques-Louis David encouraged the formation of new publics with new tastes in subject matter and genres. The catalogue features 126 paintings by 50 artists. Each section includes a short biography of the artist and in-depth discussions of individual paintings incorporating the most up-to-date scholarship.

Valentin de Boulogne Annick Lemoine, Keith Christiansen, 2016-10-07 Following Caravaggio's death in 1610, the French artist Valentin de Boulogne (1591-1632) emerged as one of the great champions of naturalistic painting. The eminent art historian Roberto Longhi honored him as the most energetic and passionate of Caravaggio's naturalist followers. In Rome, Valentin, who loved the tavern as much as the painter's palette, fell in with a rowdy confederation of artists but eventually received commissions from some of the city's most prominent patrons. It was in this artistically rich but violent metropolis that Valentin created such masterworks as a major altarpiece in Saint Peter's Basilica and superb renderings of biblical and secular subjects until his tragic death at the age of forty-one cut short his ascendant career. With discussions of nearly fifty works representing practically all of his painted oeuvre, Valentin de Boulogne: Beyond Caravaggio explores both the the artist s superlative depictions of daily life and the tumultuous context in which they were produced Essays by a team of international scholars consider his key attributions to European painting his devotion to everyday objects and models from life his technique of staging pictures with the immediacy of unfolding drama and his place in the pantheon of French artists An extensive chronology surveys the rare extant documents that chronicle his biography while individual entries help situate his works in the contexts of his times Rich with incident and insight and beautifully illustrated in Valentin s complex suggestive paintings Valentin de Boulogne Beyond Caravaggio reveals a seminal artist a practitioner of realism in the seventeenth century who prefigured the naturalistic modernism of Gustave Courbet and Edouard Manet two centuries later

Franits,2007 The Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen 1588 1629 is the first major study of this important early seventeenth century master since Benedict Nicolson s classic monograph of 1958 It comprises two chapters that explore ter Brugghen s development as an artist and the reception of his work among contemporaries followed by a truly monumental catalogue raisonn of ter Brugghen s 89 authentic paintings 54 pictures associated with the artist and or his workshop 141 rejected works 42 lost works and lastly 10 drawings that have been linked to ter Brugghen directly or related to his paintings Already celebrated during his lifetime and avidly collected by elite cognescenti in the Dutch Republic and abroad ter Brugghen executed a dazzling variety of paintings ranging from Bible subjects and saints to fascinating mythological images as well as scenes of daily life including musicians Although his knowledge of paintings by Caravaggio that he had seen during his early sojourn in Rome always remained acute these experiences were continually tempered by his awareness of older Northern European artistic traditions and conventions with the result that ter Brugghen created pictures whose subject matter and style are fascinating and at times unique Until his untimely death in August of 2003 Leonard J Slatkes was Distinguished Professor of Art History at Queens College of the City University of New York NY He was an internationally renowned expert on the art of the Dutch Caravaggisti to whom he had devoted many essays books and exhibition catalogues Slatkes had begun conducting research on ter Brugghen s paintings in the 1960 s with the expectation of eventually publishing a new monograph on the artist Wayne Franits a former student of Slatkes s is currently Professor of Fine Arts at Syracuse University Syracuse NY He has authored numerous publications on seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish art Willa Cather and Modern Cultures Melissa J. Homestead,Guy J. Reynolds,2011-10-01 Linking Willa Cather to the modern or modernism still seems an eccentric proposition to some people Born in 1873 Cather felt tied to the past when she witnessed the emergence of twentieth century modern culture and the clean classical sentences in her fiction contrast starkly with the radically experimental prose of prominent modernists Nevertheless her representations of place in the modern world reveal Cather as a writer able to imagine a startling range of different cultures Divided into two sections the essays in Cather Studies Volume 9 examine Willa Cather as an author with an innovative receptivity to modern cultures and a powerful affinity with the visual and musical arts From the interplay between modern and antimodern in her representations of native culture to the music and visual arts that animated her imagination the essays are unified by an understanding of Cather as a writer of transition whose fiction meditates on the cultural movement from Victorianism into the twentieth century and he did not become a portraitist although his professional training included those skills He chose a single genre for himself landscape painting and in that he achieved a degree of perfection none of his contemporaries managed to attain Yet the little boy began by drawing caricatures Boudin advised Monet to stop doing caricatures and to take up landscapes instead The sea the sky animals people and trees are beautiful in the exact state in which nature created them surrounded by air and light Indeed it was Boudin who passed on to Monet his conviction of the importance of working in the open air which Monet would in turn transmit to his impressionist friends Monet did not want to enrol at the Ecole des Beaux Arts He chose to attend a private school L Acad mie Suisse established by an ex model on the Quai d Orf vres near the Pont Saint Michel One could draw and paint from a live model there for a modest fee This was where Monet met the future impressionist Camille Pissarro Later in Gleyre s studio Monet met Auguste Renoir Alfred Sisley and Fr d ric Bazille Monet considered it very important that Boudin be introduced to his new friends He also told his friends of another painter he had found in Normandy This was the remarkable Dutchman Jongkind His landscapes were saturated with colour and their sincerity at times even their na vet was combined with subtle observation of the Normandy shore s variable nature At this time Monet s landscapes were not yet characterized by great richness of colour Rather they recalled the tonalities of paintings by the Barbizon artists and Boudin s seascapes He composed a range of colour based on yellow brown or blue grey At the Third Impressionist Exhibition in 1877 Monet presented a series of paintings for the first time seven views of the Saint Lazare train station He selected them from among twelve he had painted at the station This motif in Monet s work is in line not only with Manet s Chemin de fer The Railway and with his own landscapes featuring trains and stations at Argenteuil but also with a trend that surfaced after the railways first began to appear In 1883 Monet had bought a house in the village of Giverny near the little town of Vernon At Giverny series painting became one of his chief working procedures Meadows became his permanent workplace When a journalist who had come from V theuil to interview Monet asked him where his studio was the painter answered My studio I ve never had a studio and I can t see why one would lock oneself up in a room To draw yes to paint no Then broadly gesturing towards the Seine the hills and the silhouette of the little town he declared There s my real studio Monet began to go to London in the last decade of the nineteenth century He began all his London paintings working directly from nature but completed many of them afterwards at Giverny The series formed an indivisible whole and the painter had to work on all his canvases at one time A friend of Monet s the writer Octave Mirbeau wrote that he had accomplished a miracle With the help of colours he had succeeded in recreating on the canvas something almost impossible to capture he was reproducing sunlight enriching it with an infinite number of reflections Alone among the impressionists Claude Monet took an almost scientific study of the possibilities of colour to its limits it is unlikely that one could have gone any further in that direction
